BATTALION AND BRIGADE DRILL

“The exterior splendor, the regularity of movements, the adroitness and at the same time firmness of the mass—all this gives the individual Soldier the safe and calming conviction that nothing can withstand his particular regiment or battalion.”

Colmar von der Goltz, 1843-1916 Rossback und Jena

For the most part, battalion and brigade drill merely provides the procedures for executing company or battalion drill in conjunction with other companies or battalions in the same formation.

For drill purposes, a battalion or brigade consists of a headquarters (staff), Colors, and two or more companies or battalions. The right flank unit serves as base when in a line formation; the leading element is the base when in column.

NOTE: Executive officers, first sergeants, and platoon sergeants form the same as in-company drill for all formations, unless otherwise specified.

9-1. BATTALION FORMATIONS

The battalion has two basic formations—a line and a column. Separate elements may be arranged in several variations within either formation: the battalion may be formed in line with the companies in line with platoons in line, or battalion in line with companies in column with platoons in line (Figure 9-1, page 9-2). From those formations, the battalion may be positioned in a battalion in column with companies in column, or companies in mass, or companies in column with platoons in line (Figure 9-2, page 9-3).

a. Forming the Battalion. To facilitate the forming of a larger unit, the commander normally alerts the component units as to the desired formation, time, place, route, uniform, and the sequence in which the units will form. Unless the right guide's position at the formation site has been previously marked, the guides report to the site and receive instructions before the arrival of the troops.

(1) The commissioned staff forms in one rank, at normal interval and centered on the commander. Staff members are normally arranged in their numerical order from right to left. When enlisted staff personnel form as part of the officer staff, they form two steps to the rear of their respective staff officer. The command sergeant major forms one step to the rear and centered on the Colors.

(2) When the battalion participates as a separate element of a larger formation, or when space is limited, it is normally formed in a mass formation in the same manner as forming a company mass (Figure 9-3).

(3) The adjutant is responsible for the formation of troops. He takes a position at the right flank of the line on which the units are to form and faces down the line. He remains facing down the line until all units are formed and then marches to his post midway between the line of troops and the proposed position of the commander. As the commander and his staff approach, the adjutant commands (directs) the units to ATTENTION, faces the commander, salutes, and reports, "Sir, the battalion is formed."

NOTE: If guides are used, the adjutant takes his post as soon as the guides have been aligned.

(4) The commander returns the Salute and commands POST. The adjutant marches forward, passes to the commander's right, and takes his post as the right flank staff officer. The commander then commands or directs such actions as he desires.

(5) Normally, the Colors are positioned at the center of the battalion when formed in line or column, and four steps to the rear of the staff when formed in mass.

b. Dismissing the Battalion. To dismiss the battalion, the commander commands TAKE CHARGE OF YOUR UNITS. The company commanders and battalion commander exchange Salutes. The battalion commander returns all Salutes with one Salute. He then dismisses his staff.

NOTE: In a battalion mass formation, the platoon leaders form as the first rank of troops. The right flank platoon leader serves as the guide.

c. Inspecting the Battalion. When the battalion is to be inspected, the adjutant forms the battalion in line with companies in line and platoons in line.

(1) The adjutant forms the troops, reports, and takes his position with the staff (as previously described). When the adjutant has joined the staff, the battalion commander directs PREPARE FOR INSPECTION. Unit commanders face about and give the same directive. The platoon leaders prepare their platoons for inspection in the same manner as in company drill. When all of the platoons in each company have completed opening ranks and have dressed right, the company commander faces the battalion commander. When all company commanders are again facing him, the battalion commander commands AT EASE.

NOTE: Because of the time involved in inspecting a battalion, the commander normally directs his staff to inspect the companies while he inspects the Colors and makes a general inspection of the battalion. The Color guards do not execute Inspection Arms.

(2) As the battalion commander (or his designated staff officer) approaches the company, the company commander faces about, salutes, and reports, "Sir, _____ Company is prepared for inspection." The inspecting officer then proceeds to the first platoon to be inspected. The company commander takes a position to the left of the inspecting officer. The platoons are inspected in the same manner as explained in company drill. In the event a platoon has already been inspected by a staff officer, or is waiting to be inspected by a staff officer, and the battalion commander approaches, the battalion commander is invited to inspect the platoon.

(3) When the inspection has been completed and the battalion commander is en route back to his post, the company commanders bring their units to ATTENTION and CLOSE RANKS and AT EASE. When the battalion commander has returned to the front of the formation and all staff officers have completed their inspection, the battalion commander commands Battalion, ATTENTION and dismisses the battalion (as previously described).

(4) If the battalion is being inspected by a higher commander and his staff, the battalion commander reports to the inspecting officer in the same manner as the company commanders. The battalion commander's staff takes a position to the left of the higher inspecting staff and escorts them to the unit. The battalion commander escorts the higher commander.

9-2. BRIGADE FORMATIONS

The brigade, like the battalion, has two basic formations – a line and a column. The battalions may be arranged in several variations within either formation: the brigade may be formed with battalions in mass, or battalions in line with companies in mass. From those formations, the brigade may be positioned in column with battalions in mass, companies in mass, or battalions in column with companies in column. The formation selected is normally dictated by the space available and the desires of the commander (Figure 9-4).

- a. The brigade is formed and dismissed in the same manner as the battalion.
- b. Normally, the brigade Color is positioned at the center of the brigade. Subordinate Color-bearing organizations position their Colors to the center of their formation when in a line or column formation, or four steps to the rear of their staff when in a mass formation (Figure 9-5).

PART TWO

CEREMONIES

“A ceremonial parade, impeccably performed, can never fail to be a source of inspiration to those who watch it or take part in it. It is the noblest and proudest form of drill. Based on the ‘blunt whetstone’ of drill instruction to recruits it was for many hundreds of years the foundation of battle discipline in all Armies . . .

“Today, once the elements of discipline have been instilled through drill on the parade square, it develops, naturally, into various forms of crew drill, gun drill, and battle drill but the aim of discipline remains unchanged. This aim is the conquest of fear. Drill helps to achieve this because when it is carried out men tend to lose their individuality and are unified into a group under obedience to orders.

“If men are to give their best in war they must be united. Discipline seeks through drill to instill into all ranks this sense of unity, by requiring them to obey orders as one man. A Ceremonial parade, moreover, provides an occasion for men to express pride in their performance, pride in the Regiment or Corps and pride in the profession of Arms.”

*General Sir Harold Alexander, Ceremonial for the Army Ministry for Defense, Army Department
November 1968*

NOTE: See Appendix J for a checklist for conducting a successful ceremony.

Chapter 10

REVIEWS

This chapter discusses the general history of the review and the different types of reviews used in the Army today.

10-1. HISTORY

Reviews can be traced to the Middle Ages when rulers, as a way of showing their strength, were likely to have military ceremonies.

a. In the American Army, reviews were originally outlined in Baron Friedrich von Steuben’s Blue Book and practiced by revolutionary Soldiers. A review consisted of four stages: a formation of troops, presentation and honors, inspection, and a march in review. Today’s reviews have incorporated three additional stages: honors to the nation, remarks, and a conclusion. The presence of the band represents the significant role that the drum, fife, and other musical instruments have played throughout military history for signaling in camp or on the battlefield. The presence of the Colors at the center of the formation represents their presence at the forefront of the unit during the heat of battle.

b. At the beginning of the 17th century, armies throughout the world were adopting the regimental system. Regiments were assigned a specific color or number for ease of identification and position on the battlefield. In battle, the color (or flag) party marched at the front and center of its unit as a point for the unit to dress on. By leading the unit in battle, the Colors became prime targets, as victories in those days were expressed in terms of the number of enemy Colors captured; consequently, the Color party bore the brunt of the battle and suffered heavy casualties. Historically, in the American Army, the Colors have been placed in the center of the formation and have been considered to be a part of the company on the immediate right of the Colors. This company is still called the Color unit.

(1) In infantry regulations of 1812, the line up of companies from right to left was determined by the seniority of the company commander, with the senior on the right. The manual for U.S. infantry tactics in 1862 placed the senior commander on the right and the second senior on the left with the other eight companies in between. After they were lined up, the companies were then numbered first through tenth from right to left. In the infantry drill regulations of 1892, companies continued to be aligned by seniority. Between 1910 and 1970, companies were designated by letters of the alphabet and lined up from right to left: headquarters company, rifle companies in alphabetical order, then any combat support companies. The Colors, however, remained posted in the center of the formation.

(2) Musical elements (usually drums and fifes, and sometimes a band) were used during actual battle and marched 12 to 15 paces to the rear of the formation. By 1892, the infantry drill regulations posted bands and field music on the right of the formation or at the head of the formation when it moved in column.

c. Honors appear to have originated as musical fanfare and later a gun salute was added. The combination of the two now constitute military honors.

(1) The custom of announcing the arrival of royalty and heads of state with a fanfare of trumpets or drum rolls had its origin in England. It is ironic that drum ruffles and the two-note bugle call flourishes, used in this manner today, have all but disappeared in the British Commonwealth while the tradition is still carried on in the United States.

(2) The colonists brought many of the military customs of their mother country with them when they came to America. At the time of the French-Indian Wars, Soldiers were instructed to “rest (present arms) and beat two ruffles” for the Royal Governor of Virginia. In 1776, officers of the Continental Army were advised that “the adjutant is to order a drum and fife to give two ruffles to a major general and one to a brigadier.”

(3) When Baron von Steuben wrote his manual of discipline, he stated that there were to be “certain ruffles” for generals. It is interesting to note that General George Washington was not accorded ruffles. Instead, his arrival was announced by a march— more than likely “Washington’s March”—that is still played today. In time, this custom was extended to include governors of sovereign states and visiting foreign dignitaries.

(4) Ruffles were not considered elegant and were used exclusively by the military. In some cases they were even accorded to the officer of the day.

(5) It was some time before trumpets were added to the drum rolls; it is believed they were so used during the War of 1812. Honors for dignitaries were modified to include a flourish of trumpets called the “Three Cheers.” It is likely that this particular salute evolved into the Ruffles and Flourishes as they are played today.

(6) Navy records indicate that the regulations of 1876 stipulated there would be a ruffle of drums to announce the President's arrival but made no mention of the trumpet flourishes. A later regulation (1893) stated that the chief executive would receive four Ruffles and Flourishes.

(7) Gun salutes may be traced back to a period when it took a long time to reload guns. By firing all of its guns at once, the battery or fort was left defenseless. The number of guns fired as a salute to honor a U.S. President was not established until 1841. Before that, presidential honors included one gun for every state. It reached at least 24 guns before it was decided that any more guns would be unrealistic and the number of 21 was adopted in 1841. In 1875, the United States adopted 21 guns for the international salute and that number is currently used as honors for all dignitaries of rank equivalent to the President.

10-2. TYPES OF REVIEWS

A review is a military ceremony used to—

- Honor a visiting, high-ranking commander, official, or dignitary, and or permit them to observe the state of training of a command.
- Present decorations and awards.
- Honor or recognize unit or individual achievements.
- Commemorate events.

a. Normally, a review is conducted with a battalion or larger troop unit; however, a composite or representative element consisting of two or more platoons may serve the same purpose. A review consists of the following steps in sequence:

- Formation of troops.
- Presentation of command and honors (although primarily a characteristic of a parade, “sound off” may be included here to enhance the ceremony).
- Inspection. (The inspection stage may be omitted for decorations, awards, or individual recognition ceremonies.)
- Honors to the nation.
- Remarks.
- March in review.
- Conclusion.

NOTE: If retreat is conducted as part of the review, it occurs after presentation of the command and honors and before the inspection. Honors to the nation is omitted.

b. Other ceremonial activities, or combinations thereof, that may be incorporated within the framework of a review are:

- Review with decorations, awards, and individual retirement.
- Review with change of command, activation, or inactivation of units.
- Review with retreat.
- Review with retreat and retirement, decorations, and awards.
- Review with retreat and change of command, activation, or inactivation of units.

NOTE: Review with change of command should not be combined with an awards ceremony. Awarding a decoration to an outgoing command is accomplished separately from, and preferably before, a review at which the responsibility of command is transferred.

c. In order that he may review his own command or accompany a visiting reviewing officer, a commander normally designates an officer of his command as commander of troops. The commander of troops is responsible for the preparation of the troops for the review.

d. The ready line and final line on which the units are to form and the route of march are marked or designated before beginning the ceremony (Figure 10-1, page 10-6).

(1) The primary function of the ready line is to enable the unit commander to arrange his unit into the prescribed formation before movement to the final line. The ready line is to the rear of the final line. Flags or appropriate markings are used to designate the post of the reviewing officer and the points where Eyes, RIGHT and Ready, FRONT are to be commanded (6 steps to the reviewing officer's right and left and from 6 to 20 steps in front of the reviewing officer).

(2) Commanders should determine the length of their formation (steps) so that they know how far beyond the ready front marker (6 steps beyond the reviewing officer) they command Ready, FRONT. This ensures that the last members of their unit are six steps beyond the reviewing officer when the command is given.

(3) The command Eyes is given as the right foot strikes the marching surface, and the command of execution RIGHT is given the next time the right foot strikes the marching surface. The commands Ready and FRONT are given as the left foot strikes the marching surface.

NOTE: These commands are given when the commander reaches the guide marker. The guide marker is placed so that when the commander reaches it, the last element of his unit is abreast of the ready front marker.

e. Any of the formations described for the battalion or brigade may be used; however, the two recommended formations for conducting reviews are: battalion in line with companies in mass (Figure 10-2, page 10-7), or brigade in line with battalions in mass (Figure 10-3, page 10-7).

NOTE: When desired or more appropriate, commands may be substituted for directives. When desired or appropriate, the formation may perform mounted using the mounted drill outlined in Appendix K.

f. The formation selected is determined by space available and other desires of the commander. Commanders may alter the formation or prescribed distances to meet local situations. Each unit should be sized uniformly with the tallest men in front and on the right. Commanders should not cause the leaders to change positions because of their size. Officers and key noncommissioned officers, including squad leaders and others equivalent by virtue of their rank and time in service, should participate in their deserved positions of dignity.

g. If possible, the reviewing officer should arrive at his post (Figure 10-4, page 10-8) after the staff of the commander of troops has reversed and the commander of troops has faced the reviewing stand. Upon arrival, the reviewing officer should immediately take his post and refrain from greeting distinguished spectators until after the review has terminated.

NOTE: In battalion mass formation, the platoon leaders form as the first rank of troops. The right flank platoon leader serves as the guide.

h. The reviewing officer, host or host commander, and distinguished persons invited to attend the review (but not themselves receiving the review), take positions facing the troops (Figure 10-4, page 10-8).

i. When a ceremony is conducted for an individual junior in rank to the host or host commander, the junior takes a position to the left of the host or host commander unless the commander yields the post of honor to him. In all cases, the honor position is the position on the right and is the reviewing officer's post. The host or host commander gives the appropriate directive, PRESENT THE COMMAND and PASS IN REVIEW, during the conduct of the review.

j. When a civilian or foreign dignitary receives the review, he takes the honor position to the right of the host. The host or host commander returns all Salutes when, in his judgment, it would be more appropriate. As a courtesy, the host or host commander should cue the dignitary and inconspicuously explain the procedures during the conduct of the ceremony. The position in which the flags are displayed at the rear of the reviewing party corresponds to the position taken by the individual in the front rank of the reviewing party.

k. When a ceremony is conducted honoring a foreign official or dignitary entitled to honors, equivalent honors (Salutes) are rendered in the manner prescribed in AR 600-25.

NOTE: If the honors of the dignitary include his or her nation's anthem, the honors are played in the following order: four Ruffles and Flourishes, the foreign anthem, an approximate 3-second drum roll, and the U.S. National Anthem.

l. When the ceremony includes decorations, awards, or retirements, the host or host commander should be senior in rank or position to the highest ranking individual being honored.

m. An officer from the local staff is designated to escort and brief members of the reviewing party and to show them their positions.

n. Since all situations or eventualities relative to various services or units (military academies, special honor guard, active Army units, reserve components, Reserve Officer Training Corps, and training centers) cannot be foreseen, commanders may make minor changes to stated procedures. However, with a view toward preserving Army tradition and maintaining consistency, they should not alter or modify the sequence of events other than stated.

NOTE: Ceremonies may be conducted with sabers and swords. See Appendix F for the manual of arms for these weapons.

NOTE: The ready front marker is always six steps to the right of the reviewing officer. The commander uses this point to estimate the placement of the guide marker. The guide marker is used as a visual reference to the commander so that when he gives the command of execution FRONT of Ready, FRONT, the last members of the unit are at the ready front marker.

10-3. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS AND INDIVIDUAL ACTIONS

The sequence of events in conducting a review and the individual actions that take place are described herein.

a. Formation of Troops. Units are moved to their positions on the ready line in the most convenient manner. For a large review, the commander of troops prescribes the routes, sequence, and time of arrival on the ready line.

NOTE: If the ready line is not used, the units form on the final line. They are aligned and given the command Parade, REST. To alert the units that the ceremony is to begin, the adjutant (from his position near the band) directs SOUND ATTENTION. The band immediately sounds Attention. Unit commanders immediately face about and command their units (in sequence from right to left) to ATTENTION and then face about. When the last unit is at Attention, the adjutant directs SOUND ADJUTANT'S CALL. The band immediately sounds Adjutant's Call. The adjutant then moves to his post midway between the line of troops and the designated post of the commander of troops and faces the commander of troops. When the adjutant has halted at his post, the commander of troops marches his staff to their post midway between the line of troops and the reviewing officer's post. The ceremony then continues as prescribed in this paragraph.

(1) In motorized and mechanized units, occupants of vehicles form dismounted in a formation corresponding to that of the other units. Their vehicles remain to the rear of the formation.

(3) The band sounds Attention, pauses, and waits for the directive to SOUND ADJUTANT'S CALL.

(4) Upon hearing Attention, unit commanders Face About, bring their units to Attention and Right Shoulder Arms, when appropriate, and face to the front. (Supplementary commands are not given in mass formations.)

(5) When all units are at Attention, the adjutant directs SOUND ADJUTANT'S CALL.

(6) The band sounds Adjutant's Call, and (without pause) begins playing a march. It continues until the last unit halts on the final line.

(7) Immediately after Adjutant's Call, the following events take place simultaneously:

(a) All unit commanders immediately command GUIDE ON LINE. The guide of each unit double-times (Port Arms) to his position on the final line of markers, halts with his right foot on the marker, executes Order Arms, and then faces to the right.

(b) The adjutant aligns the guides (if necessary) and immediately marches to a position centered on the command and halfway between the post of the commander of troops and the final line. He halts and faces to the left, facing the line of troops.

(c) As soon as the guides are on line, the unit commanders (in sequence from right to left) command Forward, MARCH. As they approach the positions of the guides, commanders command Mark Time, MARCH so that the rank of squad leaders begins to Mark Time and is on line with the left shoulder of the guide. The commander allows the unit to mark time for about eight counts and then commands Company (Battalion), HALT. On the command of execution HALT, the guide executes left face, which places his right foot on the marker. If the unit is at Right Shoulder Arms, the unit commanders command Order, ARMS. The unit is then aligned by the command At close interval, Dress Right, DRESS. At the command of execution DRESS, the platoon leader of the right platoon moves by the most direct route to the right flank and verifies the alignment of as many ranks as necessary to ensure proper alignment. When he has completed verification, he returns to a position directly in front of his third squad leader, halts parallel to the formation, and faces to the right. Other platoon leaders, on the command of execution DRESS, position themselves directly in line with their third squad by executing one (15-inch) step to the right. The commander then commands Ready, FRONT and, immediately, Parade, REST. He faces about and assumes Parade Rest. For larger reviews, the command AT EASE may be substituted for PARADE REST throughout the ceremony.

NOTE: If a ceremony is conducted with a company formed in line with platoons in column, the commands COVER and RECOVER are given to align the platoons.

(8) When all units are on the final line and are at Parade Rest, the adjutant directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ATTENTION.

(9) Unit commanders face about and (in sequence starting with the right flank unit) command Company (Battalion), ATTENTION. For larger formations, the commands may start with the center or right center unit, working toward both flanks. The unit commander then faces about.

(10) When all units are at Attention, the adjutant faces about. That is the signal for the commander of troops and his staff to move from their positions near the reviewing stand to their posts midway between the line of troops and the reviewing stand and face the line of troops.

(11) When the commander of troops has halted at his post, the adjutant faces about and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO PRESENT ARMS.

(12) Unit commanders face about and in sequence command Present, ARMS. They then face about and Salute.

(13) After all units are at Present Arms, the adjutant faces about, Salutes, and reports, "Sir, the command is formed."

(14) The commander of troops returns the Salute of the adjutant and directs TAKE YOUR POST. (The members of the staff do not salute.) The adjutant takes his post by facing to the half left in marching, marches forward, halts at normal interval to the right of the right flank staff member, and faces about. When the adjutant is in position, the commander of troops directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ORDER ARMS. Unit commanders terminate their Salutes; face about; command Order, ARMS; and then face about. When all units are at Order Arms, the left flank staff officer commands Right, FACE; Forward, MARCH; Column Left, MARCH; Column Left, MARCH; Staff HALT; and Left, FACE. At that time, the staff should be centered on, and two steps in front of, the commander of troops (Figure 10-5).

Figure 10-5. Movement of the staff to the rear of the commander of troops

(15) When the units have completed Order Arms and the staff has reversed, the commander of troops then faces the reviewing stand and waits for the reviewing officer to take his post. If, for some reason, the reviewing officer has been delayed, or if a delay is prearranged, the commander of troops directs the units to Parade, REST and then directs them to ATTENTION before the reviewing officer's arrival.

b. Presentation and Honors. Use the following procedures to execute presentation and honors during a review.

(1) When the reviewing officer has halted at his post, the commander of troops faces about and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO PRESENT ARMS. Unit commanders face about; command Present, ARMS; face to the front; and salute. When the units have completed this movement, the commander of troops faces about and commands his staff and himself to Present, ARMS.

- NOTES:
1. If the reviewing officer is entitled to honors (AR 600-25), the commander of troops should verify that the salute battery (executive officer's right arm is raised) and the band (band master's arms are at the ready-play position) are prepared to render honors before he faces the reviewing officer. The Salute of the commander of troops is the signal for the band and salute battery to render honors. The reviewing party, and all military personnel within sight or hearing, salute on the first note of the music and terminate their Salute when honors have been completed.
 2. If the reviewing officer is not entitled to honors, only the reviewing officer returns the Salute of the commander of troops.
 3. During a review, Salutes (honors) are directed to the reviewing officer's post. In some reviews, it is appropriate for a person (colonel) not entitled honors to participate as the reviewing officer, and a person (general) entitled honors to participate as host or distinguished guest. In that situation, honors (ruffles and flourishes and cannon salute) are not appropriate.

(2) Upon completion of the presentation and or honors, the commander of troops commands his staff to Order, ARMS; faces about; and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ORDER ARMS AND PARADE REST.

(3) Unit commanders terminate their Salutes, face about, and command Order, ARMS and Parade, REST. They then face to the front and execute Parade Rest.

(4) When all troops are at Parade Rest, the commander of troops faces about. He and his staff remain at Attention.

NOTE: When scheduled, retreat is integrated into the review at this point. Procedures are outlined in paragraph 10-6.

c. Inspection. Use the following procedures to conduct an inspection during a review.

NOTE: The inspection may be omitted for decorations, awards, or retirement ceremonies.

(1) When the commander of troops has faced the reviewing stand, the reviewing officer and the host or host commander moves forward and halts three steps in front of the commander of troops. Staffs, aides-de-camp, flag bearers, and orderlies do not normally accompany the inspecting party.

(2) The commander of troops salutes and reports "Sir, the command is prepared for inspection." The band begins to play marching music on the Salute of the commander of troops and continues to play until the reviewing officer has returned to his post.

(3) The commander of troops guides the reviewing party to the right flank of the band. The commander of troops and the host or host commander march to the right of the reviewing officer. Whether marching or riding, the reviewing party passes between the line of brigade commanders and staffs, battalion commanders, and company commanders in division or similar-size reviews. In reviews for a battalion, or units of similar size, the inspecting party passes between the front rank of troops and the line of company commanders, or they pass immediately in front of the platoon leaders when companies are in a line formation.

(4) When the inspection is made by motor vehicle, the reviewing party enters the vehicle in front of the reviewing stand. The reviewing officer enters first and occupies the left rear position. The host or host commander occupies the right rear position. The vehicle, approaching from the left of the commander of troops, proceeds to the post of the commander of troops and stops. The commander of troops salutes, reports, and enters the vehicle, occupying the right front position.

(5) Upon the departure of the reviewing party, the senior staff officer commands the staff to Parade, REST. After the inspection has been completed, the senior staff officer commands Staff, ATTENTION before the return of the commander of troops.

(6) When the reviewing party approaches the right flank of each unit, the unit commander faces about and commands Company, ATTENTION. He then faces to the front and over his right shoulder commands Eyes, RIGHT. On the command Eyes, RIGHT, the company commander, executive officer, and platoon leaders execute Eyes Right and Salute. The guidon bearers execute Eyes Right and Present Guidons. Each Soldier turns his head to the right and, as the reviewing officer comes into his line of vision, each Soldier follows the officer with his head and eyes until the reviewing officer reaches the front. At that point, the head and eyes of each Soldier remain to the front. As soon as the reviewing officer has cleared the unit, the commander commands Order, ARMS. He then faces about and commands Parade, REST, assumes the position himself, and remains facing his unit. The left flank unit remains at Attention until the reviewing party has cleared the right rear of the unit. Other commanders remain facing to the rear and command their units to ATTENTION as the party passes to the rear of their units. They then command Parade, REST, face to the front, and assume Parade Rest.

- NOTES:
1. Platoon leaders give the command Eyes, RIGHT and Salute when the company is in a line formation. The company commander faces his unit, but neither he nor his guidon bearer salute.
 2. When in battalion mass formations, the battalion commander faces about and commands Battalion, ATTENTION and Eyes, RIGHT, but neither he nor his staff salute or execute Eyes Right. The unit commanders, executive officers, platoon leaders, and guidon bearers salute. The battalion commander remains facing his unit, until the reviewing officer has passed the left front of his unit, at which time he commands Order, ARMS and Parade, REST. He then commands his staff to Parade, REST but remains facing his unit.

(7) As the reviewing party approaches the Colors, the commander of troops inconspicuously commands Present, ARMS (six steps from the Colors) and Order, ARMS (six steps beyond the Colors). They do not salute when passing to the rear of the Colors. The Color guard and bearers execute Eyes Right. The organizational Color dips (salutes).

(8) After passing in front of the troops (to include the salute battery), the inspection continues along the rear of the troops and terminates at the right flank of the band. The commander of troops commands Party, HALT. The bandmaster has the band play softly until the reviewing party members begin marching back to their posts. The commander of troops faces to the half left in marching, takes two steps, halts, and faces about. The host or host commander repositions himself to the left of the reviewing officer. When the host or host commander is in position, the commander of troops and the reviewing officer exchange Salutes. Upon termination of the Salutes, the reviewing officer and host or host commander immediately face to the half left in marching and return to their posts. The commander of troops hesitates momentarily and then faces to the right in marching and returns to his post (Figure 10-6, page 10-14).

d. Honors to the Nation. Use the following procedures to execute honors to the Nation when conducting a review.

(1) When the reviewing party members have returned to their posts, the commander of troops faces about and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ATTENTION. After all units are at Attention, the commander of troops gives the command Colors Center (pause), MARCH. On the preparatory command Colors Center, the staff faces to the right. On the command of execution MARCH, the staff begins marching forward to a position offset to the left front of the reviewing stand, halts, and faces to the left. The Colors take seven steps forward and halt. The commander of troops marches forward until he is three steps in front of the color detail, halts, and then faces about.

(2) To move the Colors forward, the commander of troops commands Colors Forward, MARCH. On the command of execution MARCH, the commander of troops and the color detail march forward and then halt when the commander of troops has reached his original post. The commander of troops executes the Hand Salute and reports to the host commander, "Sir, the Colors are present." The host commander then returns the Salute and directs the commander of troops ASSUME YOUR POST AND PRESENT THE COMMAND. On this directive the commander of troops faces to the right in marching and marches by the most direct route to his post two steps in front of and centered on his staff, halts perpendicular to his staff, then faces to the right. After facing to the right, the commander of troops directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO PRESENT ARMS.

(3) Unit commanders face about and command Company (Battalion), Present, ARMS. Each commander then faces about and salutes. When all units have completed these movements, the commander of troops faces about and commands Present, ARMS for himself, his staff, and the Colors detail. On the execution of the Hand Salute by the commander of troops, the band begins to play The National Anthem.

(4) The reviewing party and all military spectators salute while the National Anthem is being played (Appendix K).

(5) Upon completion of the National Anthem, the commander of troops, his staff, and the Colors detail terminate their Salutes on his command. He then faces about and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ORDER ARMS AND PARADE REST.

(6) Unit commanders terminate their Salutes; face about; command Order, ARMS and Parade, REST; face about; and execute Parade Rest.

(7) When the last unit has executed the directive, the commander of troops faces about and commands his staff and himself to Parade, REST.

NOTE: Other ceremonial activities may be integrated into the review at this point. The sequence of events and actions of individuals are discussed in paragraphs 10-4 and 10-5.

e. Remarks. After the commander of troops and his staff have assumed Parade Rest, the reviewing officer, the host or host commander, or the distinguished guest may address the command.

(1) Upon completion of the remarks, the commander of troops brings his staff to Attention, faces about, and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ATTENTION. Unit commanders face about and command Company (Battalion), ATTENTION, and then face about. The commander of troops faces about and commands Detachment, POST (pause), MARCH. On the command POST, the Colors Reverse March and halt.

(2) On the command MARCH, Colors step off, return to their original posts, and the band begins to play.

(3) As the Colors pass his position, the commander of troops and his staff face to the left. He marches his staff back to the center of the field and faces them to the right as he faces to the left. After the Colors are in position, the commander of troops then faces the reviewing officer.

f. March in Review. Use the following procedures to conduct a march in review.

(1) Upon completion of the remarks, the commander of troops commands his staff to ATTENTION, faces about, and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ATTENTION. Unit commanders face about and command Company (Battalion), ATTENTION and face back to the front. When the units are at Attention, the commander of troops faces the reviewing officer.

(2) When the commander of troops has faced the reviewing officer, the host or host commander directs PASS IN REVIEW.

(3) The commander of troops faces about and directs PASS IN REVIEW. The band is then faced to the right and marched to a position that enables it to move straight forward onto the line of march without an initial turning movement, halts, and faces to the left. The left turn marker should be positioned to minimize the movement of the band (Figure 10-7).

NOTE: The commander takes no further action until the drum major turns his head and eyes and points his arm toward the commander.

(4) Unit commanders face to the right when the commander of troops directs PASS IN REVIEW. If weapons are to be carried at Right Shoulder Arms, the commander faces about and commands Right Shoulder, ARMS. He then faces to the left. The commander next to the band waits until the band moves into position. He then commands Right turn, MARCH loud enough for the band to hear. The band takes this command as its signal to begin playing and to march forward onto the line of march.

(5) Other units move out in procession in the same manner and follow in column at the prescribed distance (Figure 10-8). For larger reviews, commanders may command their units (in sequence) to Parade Rest while waiting their turn to move onto the line of march.

(6) The band and each following unit change direction at points indicated by markers. The commander commands, Left turn, MARCH. The commander faces about while marching as his unit is making the turn. When his unit has completed the turn, the commander commands, Forward, MARCH, and faces back to the front.

(7) All commanders, except the commander of troops, move with their staff into positions in the column and at the head of their respective units just before turning onto the reviewing line (Figure 10-9).

(8) The commander of troops and his staff move forward and execute turning movements to arrive at a position 12 steps in front of the drum major on the reviewing line.

(9) On command, the commander of troops, the brigade and battalion commanders, their staffs, and the command sergeant major execute Eyes, RIGHT and salute at the Eyes Right marker. The commander commands Ready, FRONT and terminates the Salute when the staffs have reached the Ready Front marker.

(10) The reviewing officer returns only the Salute of the commander of troops. (The return of the Salute by the reviewing officer represents the Salute for all subordinate commanders. This enables the reviewing officer to observe the review without being interrupted by frequent Salutes.) The reviewing officer, the host or host commander, their staffs, and military spectators salute the National Color when it passes.

(11) After terminating the Salute, the commander of troops and his staff (without command) execute three wheeling movements and take their post with the commander of troops on line with and to the right of the reviewing officer.

(12) Troop units execute Eyes Right on command from their company commander or from the center company commander when in battalion mass. Commanders give the preparatory command Eyes over their right shoulder two steps from the marker as the right foot strikes the marching surface. The command of execution RIGHT is given when the right foot strikes the marching surface again and on line with the marker. On the preparatory command, the guidon bearer executes Raised Guidon. On the command of execution, the company commander, executive officer, and platoon leaders execute Eyes Right and the Hand Salute. The guidon bearer executes Eyes Right and Present Guidon. The company first sergeant only executes Eyes Right. The right file continues to look straight forward and maintains correct distance. All other members execute Eyes Right and maintain alignment. When the rear of the unit has passed six steps beyond the reviewing officer, company commanders command Ready as the left foot strikes the marching surface and FRONT the next time the left foot strikes the marching surface. Unit personnel end their Salutes and turn their heads and eyes to the front. The guidon bearer executes Raised Guidon on the command Ready and returns to the Carry position on the command FRONT.

(13) When passing the reviewing officer, the bandmaster salutes and continues to look straight forward. Simultaneously, the drum major executes Eyes Right and salutes. The other members of the band continue to play marching music without interruption. When the band has passed the reviewing officer, the drum major has the band execute three left turns into a position in front of and facing the reviewing officer and at least 12 steps from the left flank of the marching troops. As the Colors pass, the bandmaster and drum major salute while the band continues to play marching music without interruption.

(14) As the Color guard passes the reviewing officer, each member, except the right flank man, executes Eyes Right on the command of the senior Color sergeant. The organizational color is dipped in Salute.

g. Conclusion. Follow these procedures to conclude a review.

(1) When the last troop element has passed the reviewing stand and has executed Ready Front, the band goes into an eight-bar drum cadence. On the first beat following the drum cadence, the band begins playing (in place) the official version of “The Army Goes Rolling Along,” beginning at the introduction. At the appropriate time, the drum major has the band march forward and execute a left turn onto the reviewing line while continuing to play until the completion of the chorus.

NOTE: The band may play music representative of the command after the last troop element has passed the reviewing stand and before playing “The Army Goes Rolling Along.”

(2) At the completion of the Army song, the commander of troops and the reviewing officer face each other and exchange Salutes, thus officially terminating the ceremony.

(3) It is appropriate for spectators to rise, stand at Attention, and sing while “The Army Goes Rolling Along” plays.

10-4. REVIEW WITH DECORATIONS, AWARDS, AND INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT (SEQUENCE OF EVENTS)

Unless otherwise specified, the sequence of events for a review with decorations, awards, and individual retirement is the same as described in paragraph 10-3. Only changes to the sequence of events are listed herein.

NOTE: The procedures mentioned provide latitude for recognition of one or a group of retirees of various grades. However, the host or host commander should consider it appropriate to have the review conducted in the retiree’s honor when only one distinguished individual is retiring and allow that individual to participate as the reviewing officer. When the Colors halt, the reviewing officer (retiree) positions himself in front of and centered on the Colors facing the reviewing stand. After awards are presented by the host, the retiree returns to the reviewing officer’s post. If there are several awardees and or retirees, it may be desirable to have the host or host commander act as the reviewing officer. In such case, the following sequence will apply.

a. Formation of Troops. Formation of troops is executed the same as described in paragraph 10-3.

b. Presentation and Honors. Presentation and honors is executed the same as described in paragraph 10-3.

NOTE: When scheduled, retreat is integrated into the review at this point. Procedures are outlined in paragraph 10-6.

c. Inspection. The inspection may be omitted for decorations, awards, or retirement ceremonies. If the inspection is omitted, the commander of troops (following Order Arms after the presentation and or honor, or after “To the Color” is played) commands Persons to be honored and Colors center (pause), MARCH. The ceremony then continues (as described in this paragraph). If the inspection is not omitted, use the procedures described in paragraph 10-3c to conduct an inspection during a review.

d. Honors to the Nation. (Omitted if retreat is conducted as part of the review.)

NOTE: Other ceremonial activities may be integrated into the review at this point.

e. Remarks. After the commander of troops and his staff have assumed Parade Rest, the reviewing officer, the host or host commander, or the distinguished guest may address the command.

(1) Upon completion of the remarks, the commander of troops brings his staff to Attention, faces about, and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ATTENTION. Unit commanders face about and command Company (Battalion), ATTENTION, and then face about. The commander of troops faces about and commands Detachment, POST (pause), MARCH. On the command POST, the following actions occur simultaneously:

(a) Colors Reverse March and halt.

(b) Awardees and or retirees execute a Right Face; guidon bearers and or commanders execute an About Face.

(2) On the command MARCH, Colors and awardees step off and the band begins to play.

(a) Persons who were decorated march forward, execute two Column Lefts, halt on line (six steps to the left of the reviewing officer), and execute a Left Face. The commands HALT and Left, FACE are given by the last man in the file.

(b) Colors step off and return to their original posts.

(3) As the Colors pass his position, the commander of troops faces himself and his staff to the left, marches his staff back to the center of the field, and faces them to the right. The commander of troops faces to the left; when the Colors are in position he then faces the reviewing officer.

f. March in Review. March in review is executed the same as described in paragraph 10-3.

g. Conclusion. Conclusion is executed the same as described in paragraph 10-3.

10-5. REVIEW WITH CHANGE OF COMMAND, ACTIVATION, OR DEACTIVATION (SEQUENCE OF EVENTS)

Unless otherwise specified, the sequence of events for a review with change of command, activation, or deactivation is the same as described in paragraph 10-3. Only changes to the sequence of events are listed herein.

a. Formation of Troops. Formation of troops is executed the same as described in paragraph 10-3.

b. Presentation and Honors. Presentation and honors is executed the same as described in paragraph 10-3.

c. Inspection. The inspection may be omitted for change of command, activation, or deactivation ceremonies. If the inspection is not omitted, use the procedures described in paragraph 10-3c to conduct an inspection during a review. When the reviewing officer has completed the inspection, the commander of troops faces about and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ATTENTION. Unit commanders face about and command Company (Battalion), ATTENTION, then they face about. When the command has completed the movement, the commander of troops commands Colors Center (pause), MARCH. On that command, the Colors are brought forward in the same manner as described in paragraph 10-3d.

d. Honors to the Nation. (Omitted if retreat is conducted as part of the review.) On the completion of honors to the nation, the commander of troops commands Detachment order, ARMS, faces about, and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ORDER ARMS AND PARADE REST. Unit commanders terminate their Salutes, face about and command Order, ARMS and Parade, REST. They then face about and assume Parade Rest. The commander of troops faces about and commands Parade, REST; the commander of troops and his staff execute Parade Rest.

NOTE: Other ceremonial activities may be integrated into the review at this point.

e. Remarks. As soon as the commander of troops and his staff have executed Parade Rest, the reviewing party moves forward to within four steps of the Colors and halts. As the party marches forward, the senior commander positions himself between the old and the new commander. The command sergeant major moves from his post (at the rear of the reviewing party) by the most direct route and halts directly in front of the organizational color.

NOTE: At the beginning of the ceremony, the outgoing commander should assume the role of host or host commander. The senior official or commander designated to “pass the organizational Color” should assume the role of an honored guest or reviewing officer except during that brief portion of the ceremony wherein he may be called upon to act as a host or host commander for the purpose of passing the organizational Color. Since the inspection of troops normally occurs early in the ceremony, the incoming commander is also at that time treated as a guest, and is expected to accompany the outgoing commander and senior official during the inspection. After the organizational Color has been passed, the incoming commander should assume the role of host or host commander, and the senior official and outgoing commander both become honored guests or reviewing officers at this point and remain as such for the balance of the ceremony (Figure 10-10).

(1) Change-of-Command Ceremonies. The outgoing commander positions himself four steps in front of his organizational Color; the senior commander is directly to his left. The old and new commanders then take one step forward and execute Facing movements so that they are facing each other.

(c) As the command sergeant major faces about, both commanders then execute Facing movements back to their original direction facing the Colors. The command sergeant major and the reviewing party face about and return to their post. At this point, the commander makes his remarks.

NOTES: 1. This procedure allows the organizational Color to be over the heart of the incoming and outgoing commanders.

2. For a company level change of command, the reviewing party is lined up the same as in larger units. The guidon takes the place of the organizational Color and the first sergeant replaces the command sergeant major. The guidon is passed in the same manner as the organizational Color. The sequence of events remains the same with modifications made to fit available assets.

(d) Upon completion of the remarks, the commander of troops brings his staff to Attention, faces about, and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ATTENTION. Unit commanders face about and command Company (Battalion), ATTENTION, and then face about. The commander of troops faces about and commands Detachment, POST (pause), MARCH. On the command POST, the following actions occur simultaneously:

- Colors Reverse March and Halt.
- Awardees and or retirees execute a Right Face; guidon bearers and or commanders execute an About Face.

(e) On the command MARCH, Colors and awardees (if present) step off and the band begins to play.

- Persons who were decorated march forward, execute two Column Lefts, halt on line (six steps to the left of the reviewing officer), and execute a Left Face. The commands HALT and Left, FACE are given by the last man in the file.
- Colors step off and return to their original posts.

- As the Colors pass his position, the commander of troops and his staff face to the left. He marches his staff back to the center of the field and faces them to the right as he faces to the left. After the Colors are in position, the commander of troops then faces the reviewing officer.

(2) Activation Ceremonies. The position of the senior commander is four steps in front of the Color bearer (with an empty sling for the organizational Color of the unit to be activated) with the unit commander to his left. The command sergeant major moves from his post with the cased organizational Color and positions himself in front of and facing the senior commander. The narrator reads the activation order.

(a) Upon completion of the reading, the command sergeant major presents the cased organizational Color to the senior commander and steps backward. The senior commander lowers the cased organizational Color to allow the command sergeant major to uncase it. The command sergeant major folds the case and places it inside the Color bearer's cartridge belt (rear center).

(b) With the organizational Color uncased, the senior commander rotates the staff to allow the organizational Color to unfurl and drape freely. The senior commander presents the organizational Color to the commander of the unit to be activated. The command sergeant major steps forward and accepts the organizational Color from the unit commander and places it in the Color bearer's sling.

(c) When the command sergeant major faces about, the reviewing party faces about and returns to the reviewing stand. The command sergeant major returns to his original post. Procedures from this point forward are the same as for change-of-command ceremonies.

(3) Deactivation Ceremonies. The position of the commander is four steps in front of the organizational Color. The command sergeant major moves from his post and positions himself in front of the organizational Color. He moves the organizational Color from the bearer's sling and faces about. The narrator reads the deactivation order.

(a) Upon completion of the reading, the command sergeant major presents the organizational Color to the commander and steps backward. The organizational Color is grasped by the commanders and the command sergeant major as described for change-of-command ceremonies. The commander rotates and lowers the organizational Color, allowing the command sergeant major to case the organizational Color.

(b) Upon completion of the casing, the commander presents the cased organizational Color to the senior commander and the command sergeant major steps forward and accepts the organizational Color from the senior commander. The reviewing party faces about and returns to the reviewing stand.

(c) The command sergeant major hands the cased organizational Color to a designated Soldier who marches from the field and the command sergeant major returns to his post. The Color bearer of the deactivated unit marches with the Color guard for the remainder of the ceremony with an empty sling. Procedures from this point forward are the same as for change-of-command ceremonies.

10-6. REVIEW WITH RETREAT (SEQUENCE OF EVENTS)

Unless otherwise specified, the sequence of events and individual actions for a review with retreat are the same as described in paragraph 10-3. Only changes to the sequence of events are listed herein.

NOTE: Honors to the nation is omitted when retreat is conducted as part of a review.

a. Formation of Troops. Formation of troops is executed the same as described in Paragraph 10-3.

b. Presentation and Honors. Presentation and honors is executed the same as described in paragraph 10-3.

c. Retreat. Upon completion of the presentation and or honors, the commander of troops commands his staff to Order, ARMS; faces about; and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ORDER ARMS AND PARADE REST. Unit commanders terminate their Salutes, face about, and command Order, ARMS and Parade, REST. They then face to the front and execute Parade Rest. The commander of troops directs SOUND RETREAT, faces about, and commands his staff to Parade, REST. As soon as the commander of troops and his staff are at Parade Rest, the band sounds retreat. At the conclusion of retreat, the commander of troops commands his staff to ATTENTION, faces the troops, and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ATTENTION AND PRESENT ARMS. When the units have completed these movements, the commander then faces the reviewing officer and commands his staff to Present, ARMS. This is the signal for the band to play "To the Color."

(1) When the ceremony is held on an Army post, the cannon is fired on the last note of "Retreat," and the flag is lowered while "To the Color" is played. (See Appendix F regarding appropriate procedures.)

(2) The reviewing officer and his staff stand at Attention during the sounding of the retreat. On the first note of "To the Color," they salute and hold the Salute until the last note is played.

(3) On the last note of the music, the commander of troops commands Order, ARMS for himself and his staff, faces about, and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ORDER ARMS AND PARADE REST. When the units have completed these movements, the commander of troops then faces the reviewing officer.

(4) The review then proceeds with the inspection as in a normal review; if omitted, other parts are integrated into the review as described in paragraphs 10-4 and 10-5.

10-7. SPECIAL REVIEW

A special review is conducted by a composite or representative unit and serves the same purposes as a standard review when a larger formation is not practical. The composite unit normally consists of a band, Colors, two or more platoons, and a salute battery (when appropriate). The reduced formation is not a reason to eliminate any of the components of a review or change their sequence.

a. A special review is essentially the same as a battalion or larger unit review, except:

(1) The troops are formed on a final line.

(2) Attention and Adjutant's Call are not sounded.

(3) Neither the adjutant nor a staff participate.

(4) Unit guidons are not used in this formation. (Organizational Colors represent the unit conducting the review.)

(5) The commander of troops gives commands rather than directives.

(6) The band positions itself in front of the reviewing officer by executing a Left Turn at a point midway between the final line and the reviewing line, and then turns right when on line and centered on the reviewing officer.

(7) Platoons pass the reviewing stand in line formation rather than column formation.

(8) On the directive Pass in review the commander of troops commands Right, FACE (Right Shoulder, ARMS, if appropriate); Forward, MARCH. The band steps off playing a march on the command of Forward, MARCH. Platoon leaders remain six steps to the front of and centered on their platoons. Platoon sergeants remain one step to the rear of and centered on their platoon.

b. Indoor ceremonies retain the same sequence as a normal review, excluding elements that are precluded because of space. Generally, a pass in review cannot be conducted indoors.

Chapter 11

PARADES

The term "parade" had various meanings to Continental Army troops camped at Valley Forge. It could mean to form, march, and drill. Present day parade procedures originated from the daily activities conducted then to form, organize, instruct, and issue parole and countersign words to the various guards on duty (outpost, picket, camp, and quarters). Early parades also enabled commanders to give special instructions to subordinate leaders and to make command announcements. In the U.S. Army regulations of 1863, reviews were a type of parade, and "dress parades" were conducted daily, except on extraordinary and urgent occasions. The parade remains basically the same as the review except that it has retained its original intent—a method whereby unit commanders could inspect troops, present awards, and issue information. The sequence of a parade has the following steps—formation of troops, sound off by a band, honors to the nation, presentation, manual of arms, report, orders published, officers center, pass in review.

11-1. HISTORY

This paragraph discusses the history of the parade and how it applies to today's Army.

a. Battalion and brigade parades are opened by adjutant's call sounded on a trumpet. This call has opened parades of the American forces for over 150 years. After some preliminaries, the adjutant directs SOUND OFF and the band plays three chords. Having sounded off, the band marches in front of the troops and then countermarches to its original position. This March across the front of the line is said to have originated with the Crusades (A.D. 1095 to 1260). The troops offering themselves for holy service were drawn up in a long formation and the band countermarched only before those chosen to serve. In American ceremonies, the sound off has been handed down as a ceremonial tradition.

b. After the band sounds off, the commanding officer may, if he wishes, give the troops some Facings or movements of the manual of arms. This was the traditional way in which he established control over his command, and it has been practiced in the United States since the Revolutionary War.

c. Parades in the revolutionary army were usually held at "Troops" or about 8 o'clock in the morning and was the time used for sergeants to call the roll and report it to the adjutant.

d. After the sergeants had returned to their posts, the commander directed that necessary orders and information be reported. After the adjutant had read the orders, he announced "Parade is dismissed." At that time, officers moved to a position centered on the commanding officer. As the commander gave specific instructions to the officers, the first sergeants would march their units back to their respective company areas where they would be dismissed.

11-2. PREPARATION

The appearance and movement of troops in formation are the primary characteristics of a parade. The preparation and organization of troops for a parade are similar to that for a review. In a parade, since the commander of troops is also the reviewing officer, the distance between the troops and the commander is greater than that for a review. Other differences are that the band conducts Sound Off, the inspection is omitted, a report is rendered, orders are published, and officers and guidons are marched forward and centered on the commander. If retreat is scheduled, honors to the nation are conducted concurrently with retreat.

11-3. CEREMONIAL BATTALION PARADE

The procedures for conducting a ceremonial battalion parade are discussed herein.

a. Formation of Troops. Units are moved to their positions on the ready line in the most convenient manner. The commander prescribes the routes, sequence, and time of arrival on the ready line. He and his staff take their posts before adjutant's call. The procedure for moving from the ready line to the final line is the same as for a review.

b. Sound Off. After the battalion has been formed, aligned, and given Parade Rest on the final line, the adjutant directs SOUND OFF and assumes the position of Parade Rest. He remains facing the formation.

(1) At the directive Sound Off, the band plays three sound off chords. At the conclusion of the third chord, the band moves forward playing a march in quick time. The band executes a left turn to march across the front of the troops. At the left of the line of troops, the band countermarches and returns over the same ground to the right of the line. After the band has passed beyond the right of the troops, it executes a right turn, countermarches again, and halts in its original position.

(2) When the band has halted, it ceases playing at the next convenient place in the music and again plays the three sound off chords. (Trooping the line by the band may be eliminated when ceremonies are conducted indoors during inclement weather and space is limited).

NOTE: Retreat, when scheduled, is integrated at this point. Upon completion of the sound off chords, the band pauses briefly and then plays retreat (by the trumpet section) without a command from the adjutant. Upon completion of retreat, the adjutant comes to Attention and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ATTENTION AND PRESENT ARMS. The commander and his staff assume Parade Rest, Attention, Present Arms, and Order Arms with the adjutant. The adjutant faces about and salutes. The adjutant's Salute is the signal for the band to play "To the Color" or the National Anthem. At the conclusion of "To the Color" or the National Anthem, the adjutant comes to Order Arms, faces about, and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ORDER ARMS. After the last unit comes to Order Arms, the adjutant faces about.

c. Honors to the Nation. If retreat is not conducted, the adjutant (after the band has completed Sound Off) assumes the position of Attention and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ATTENTION AND PRESENT ARMS. Unit commanders assume the position of Attention, face about, and command Company, ATTENTION, Present, ARMS. They face about and salute. When all units are at Present Arms, the adjutant faces about and salutes.

This is the signal for the band to play the National Anthem. The battalion commander and his staff execute Present, ARMS on his command on the first note of the music.

d. Presentation. Upon completion of the National Anthem, the battalion commander and his staff execute Order, ARMS on his command. The adjutant terminates his Salute, faces about, and directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ORDER ARMS. Unit commanders terminate their Salute, face about, command Order, ARMS, and then face (back) to the front. When all units are at Order Arms, the adjutant faces about, salutes, and reports "Sir, the parade is formed." The battalion commander returns the Salute and commands POST. The adjutant marches forward, passes by the battalion commander's right, and takes his post as the right flank member of the staff.

e. Manual of Arms. After the adjutant has joined the staff, the battalion commander commands such movements in the manual of arms as he may desire. When desired, the commander may direct, rather than command, HAVE YOUR UNITS EXECUTE THE MANUAL OF ARMS. The unit commanders, in sequence from right to left, command Right Shoulder, ARMS; Port, ARMS; Left Shoulder, ARMS; Order, ARMS. When the unit on the right has completed all of the movements, the next unit then begins and so on until the last unit has completed the movements.

f. Report. When all units have completed the manual of arms, the battalion commander then directs RECEIVE THE REPORT. The adjutant returns to his position at the center of the command and commands REPORT. Unit commanders in succession, from right to left, salute and report " Company, all present or accounted for." The adjutant returns each commander's Salute. After receiving the report, the adjutant faces about, salutes, and reports "Sir, all present or accounted for."

g. Publishing of Orders. The battalion commander returns the Salute and directs PUBLISH THE ORDERS. The adjutant faces about and directs ATTENTION TO ORDERS (he then reads the orders).

h. Officers Center March. After reading the orders, the adjutant directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO PARADE REST.

(1) Unit commanders face about and command Parade, REST. They then face about and come to Parade Rest. When all units are at Parade Rest, the adjutant commands (loud enough for the band to hear) Officers (pause), Center (long pause), MARCH. He then faces about and takes his post with the staff.

(a) On the command Officers, all officers come to Attention and guidon bearers come to Carry Guidon.

(b) On the command Center, when companies are in mass formation, the company commanders and guidon bearers face to the center. Officers commanding platoons move one step forward and face to the center. Executive officers move through the interval between units nearest to the center and take their posts in the column formed by the platoon leaders.

(c) At the command MARCH, the band plays marching music and continues to play until the officers have halted in front of the commander. Officers and guidon bearers close to the center, halt, and individually face to the front. Company commanders, when moving to the center, face half right or half left in marching, march to the front, and close

(2) After the officers and guidon bearers have closed and faced to the front, the senior company commander commands Forward, MARCH. The center officer of the leading rank is the guide. The officers and guidon bearers are halted with the leading rank six steps from the battalion commander, and they salute. The senior company commander commands HALT and Present, ARMS. The battalion commander returns the Salute. On the command Order, ARMS by the senior company commander, the officers execute Order Arms and the guidon bearers execute Carry Guidon.

(3) The battalion commander gives such instruction as he deems necessary and then commands Officers, Post (pause), MARCH.

(a) At the command Post, all officers and guidon bearers face about.

(b) At the command of execution MARCH, the band begins to play and officers and guidon bearers step off.

(4) The senior commander commands Officers, HALT. He halts the leading rank in line, three steps from the line of companies. He then commands Post (pause), MARCH.

(a) At the command Post, the officers and guidon bearers face outward.

(b) At the command MARCH, the officers and guidon bearers step off and return to their posts and come to Parade Rest. The music ceases when the last officer has taken his post and come to Parade Rest.

(5) During the execution of Officers Center and Officers Post, except when saluting, all guidon bearers remain at Carry Guidon.

i. Pass in Review. When all officers have returned to their posts and the band has stopped playing, the battalion commander directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ATTENTION. Unit commanders assume the position of Attention, face about, and command Company, ATTENTION. Then they face about. When all units are at Attention, the battalion commander directs PASS IN REVIEW. The battalion passes in review in the same manner as prescribed for a review except the units render honors when six steps to the left of the commander of troops and staff, and terminate honors when the unit is six steps to the right of the commander of troops and staff. The commander of troops and staff then assumes the role of the reviewing party—at their location on the field.

j. Conclusion. When the last element of troops has passed the reviewing stand and executed Ready Front, the band ceases playing and goes immediately into an eight-bar drum cadence. On the first beat following drum cadence, the band begins playing (in place) the official version of “The Army Goes Rolling Along,” beginning at the introduction. On the second time through letter A (or ninth bar), the drum major has the band march forward and execute a left turn onto the reviewing line while continuing to play until the completion of the chorus. The completion of “The Army Goes Rolling Along” terminates the ceremony. It is appropriate for spectators to rise and stand at the position of Attention while “The Army Goes Rolling Along” plays.

11-4. CEREMONIAL BRIGADE PARADE

The brigade ordinarily is formed in line with battalions in mass formations. The parade is the same as the ceremonial battalion parade with the following exceptions:

- The brigade commander is substituted for battalion commander, and brigade for battalion, in the description.
 - In moving across the front of the brigade, the band passes in front of the line of battalion commanders during the Sound Off.
- a. The battalions execute Present Arms, Order Arms, Parade Rest, and come to Attention on the command of execution of their respective commanders. Reports are made by the battalion commanders instead of company commanders.
- b. At the command of execution MARCH, of Officers, Center, MARCH, the battalion commanders, their staffs, and Colors close on the line of battalion commanders and staffs. The company commanders face to the half right or half left in marching and close on a line four steps to the rear of the battalion Color. The guidon bearers face half right or half left in marching and close on a line four steps back of the company commanders. The other officers face half right or half left in marching and close on a line four steps in back of the guidon bearers. The command sergeant major remains in place and assumes command of the battalion.
- c. The officers, guidon bearers, and Colors having closed and faced to the front, the senior battalion commander commands Forward, MARCH. The center officer of the leading rank is the guide. On the command of the senior battalion commander, the officers, guidon bearers, and Colors are halted with the leading ranks six steps from the brigade commander. They salute the brigade commander; he returns the Salute. The commands Present, ARMS and Order, ARMS are given by the senior battalion commander.
- d. The brigade commander commands Officers, Post (pause), MARCH. On the command Post, the Colors execute Reverse March. All others execute About Face. On the command of execution MARCH, the officers, Colors, and guidon bearers march forward. The senior battalion commander commands Officers, HALT so that the rank of battalion commanders is on line with its original position. The senior battalion commander then commands Post (pause), MARCH. On the command Post, the battalion commanders and staffs face outward, the battalion Color guard executes wheeling movements, and on the command of execution MARCH, the Color guard marches back to its original position. The company commanders, guidon bearers, and other officers face to the half right or half left in marching and move back to their original positions.

11-5. STREET PARADES

For street parades, troops are formed and marched in the most convenient manner. Street parades may include military vehicles. Towed or transported weapons add to the drama of a street parade. Cargo vehicles are included only to increase the size of the display.

- a. Practical formations for street parades are:
 - Columns of threes and fours.
 - Two or more columns of threes and fours abreast.
 - Mass formation.
- b. The vehicles move in a single column or column of twos, threes, or fours abreast, as the width of the street permits.
- c. In order to keep military units in the same cadence, units should not march between two bands.

HONOR GUARDS

In the Continental Army, honor guards were used as a protective measure and as a means of showing the improvement in discipline in the newly formed army. They were probably selected specifically for their size and strength and maybe their proven prowess in combat. Today, the honor guard formation is a special courtesy to visiting dignitaries. Members of the guard are selected for their Soldierly appearance and superior discipline.

12-1. BASIC INFORMATION

The basic information herein applies to all honor guards.

a. An honor guard consists of a band, Colors, salute battery (when available and appropriate), and a formation of troops. Honor guards render personal honors to persons of high military or civilian rank or position upon arrival or departure from a military command. Honor guards are not a substitute for those ceremonies appropriate in a review or parade.

b. An honor guard should not be so large as to compromise the exceptional standards required of honor guards. Uniforms will be those prescribed in Army regulations and tables of allowance.

c. The senior commander or his appointed representative is the host and takes part in the ceremony. He is briefed on the sequence of events and advises the person to be honored of actions that will take place.

d. Before the arrival of the person(s) to be honored, the honor guard commander positions the band, formation of troops, and salute battery from right to left in that order. The troops are formed in line of companies or platoons with the Colors centered. When conditions dictate, the salute battery may be located separately but its control and purpose must not be impaired.

12-2. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS AND INDIVIDUAL ACTIONS

a. At the approach of the person(s) to be honored, the honor guard commander faces about, commands Honor guard, ATTENTION, and then faces about again. The host welcomes the person(s) to be honored on arrival, escorts him to the position not more than 20 steps in front of and facing the honor guard commander, and takes his position on the guest's left. When the person(s) to be honored has halted in his position, the honor guard commander faces about, commands Present, ARMS, faces about, and salutes.

b. As the honor guard commander executes the Hand Salute, the band begins the appropriate honors. When a salute battery is employed, the first round is fired simultaneously with the first note of the music and remaining rounds are fired at three-second intervals. All military personnel in the vicinity of the honor guard formation, except those on security duty, salute during the firing of the Cannon Salute and the rendering of honors (AR 600-25).

NOTE: If a foreign dignitary's honors include his national anthem, the sequence of the ceremony is: honors, inspection, and "The Army Goes Rolling Along" concluding the ceremony.

c. On the completion of the honors, the honor guard commander terminates his Salute, faces about, and commands Order, ARMS. He then faces about.

d. At this time, the honoree(s) and host march forward and halt three steps from the honor guard commander. The honor guard commander salutes and reports "Sir, the honor guard is prepared for inspection." The band begins to play appropriate music upon the salute of the guard commander and continues to play until the members of the reviewing party have returned to their posts. The guard commander then guides the honoree(s) and host to the right of the band. The inspecting party passes along the front and rear of the line of troops, to include the salute battery (if used), with the option of omitting the salute battery from the inspection if its distance from the remainder of the honor guard is prohibitive.

e. The honor guard commander takes a position on the right of the person(s) honored and guides him through the inspection. The host takes a position on the right of the honor guard commander.

f. The inspection begins at the right of the band. The inspecting party passes along the front rank of troops. Ranks are not opened; the individual members of the honor guard do not come to Inspection Arms or execute Eyes Right.

g. The members of the inspecting party render Hand Salutes when they pass in front of the Colors.

h. The inspection terminates at the right flank of the band. The honor guard commander commands Party, HALT. The bandmaster has the band play softly until the reviewing party members begin marching back to their posts. The honor guard commander faces to the half left in marching, takes two steps, halts, and faces about. The host repositions himself to the left of the honoree(s). When the host is in position, the honor guard commander and the honoree(s) exchange Salutes. Upon termination of the Salutes, the honoree(s) and the host immediately face to the half left in marching and return to their posts. The honor guard commander hesitates momentarily, then faces to the right in marching, and returns to his post.

i. After the inspection is terminated and the honoree(s) and host return to their positions, the honor guard is given Present, ARMS and the band plays the National Anthem. If the honoree(s) is a foreign dignitary, the National Anthem of his country is played first, followed by an approximate three-second drum roll and the playing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

j. When "The Star Spangled Banner" ends, the command Order, ARMS is given. The honor guard commander faces about after the command for Order Arms is given and remains at Attention while the band plays one chorus of "The Army Goes Rolling Along," beginning at the introduction. At the completion of "The Army Goes Rolling Along," the honor guard commander salutes and announces "Sir, this concludes the ceremony." The honor guard remains at Attention until the honoree(s) has departed. The band may play incidental background music while the honoree(s) is being introduced to the staff and other guests.

12-3. HONOR CORDON CEREMONIES

In addition to a scheduled honor guard ceremony, honor cordon ceremonies may be used when welcoming or bidding farewell to distinguished visitors. The ceremony consists of a select group of Soldiers with characteristics associated with honor guards, designated to honor and provide security at the immediate arrival or departure site.

a. The honor cordon normally consists of two squads, a senior sergeant, a cordon commander, and a host. When deemed appropriate, the commander may elect to use a band, Colors, and distinguishing flags.

(1) Arrival. Upon arrival of the craft or vehicle, the cordon is marched to a position near the exit (ramp) in two columns, centered on the exit, faced to the center, and dressed with about three steps distance between the ranks. As the honored guest(s) and greeting party depart the immediate vicinity of the exit, and approach within three steps of the host, the cordon commander commands Present, ARMS, and the entire cordon salutes simultaneously. After the honored guest(s) and all greeting party members have cleared the formation, the cordon commander commands Order, ARMS, and the cordon members come to Order Arms simultaneously (Figure 12-1, page 12-4).

(2) Departure. The formation for the honor cordon upon departure is basically the same as that for arrival, except the cordon commander and the senior sergeant position themselves on the flank of the formation away from the departure site. At the approach (about three steps) of the honored guest(s) and host, the cordon commander commands Present, ARMS, and the cordon salutes simultaneously. After the honored guest has entered the conveyance, the cordon commander commands Order, ARMS and remains in place until the conveyance has departed. If the conveyance is an aircraft, the cordon commander commands Order, ARMS; Guards, FACE, and the guards face toward the cordon commander. The honor cordon departs the area.

b. When a band and Colors are a part of the arrival or departure ceremonies, they are positioned as shown in Figure 12-1 (page 12-4). The band plays appropriate music during the ceremony. The organizational Color is dipped in salute when the honored guest(s) approaches to within six steps. After he passes, it is returned to the carry position. As soon as the guest(s) has entered the conveyance during a departure ceremony, the Colors and distinguishing flags depart the area with the honor cordon.

RETREATS AND REVEILLES

Retreat is a ceremony in which the unit honors the U.S. flag when it is lowered in the evening. This ceremony is conducted at the direction of the unit commanders. The installation commander sets the time for sounding retreat. Reveille is a ceremony in which a unit honors the U.S. flag as it is raised in the morning. This ceremony is conducted at the direction of the commander. The installation commander sets the time for sounding Reveille. (See Appendix K for more information on raising the flag.)

13-1. RETREAT HISTORY

The term “retreat” is taken from the French word “retraite” and refers to the evening ceremony. The bugle call sounded at retreat was first used in the French army and dates back to the Crusades. Retreat was sounded at sunset to notify sentries to start challenging until sunrise, and to tell the rank and file to go to their quarters. The ceremony remains as a tradition. The old cavalry call “To the Standard,” in use from about 1835, has been replaced by the present call of “To the Color.” This remains as music honoring the flag as it is lowered in the evening.

13-2. RETREAT SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

The sequence of events for conducting retreat are discussed herein.

a. The unit is formed facing the flag five minutes (if possible) before the sounding of retreat. Four minutes before the sounding of retreat, the adjutant or other appointed officer takes his position centered on and facing the line of troops and commands Battalion, ATTENTION and then Parade, REST.

b. The adjutant faces about and executes Parade Rest. On the last note of retreat, the evening gun is fired. The adjutant then comes to Attention, faces about, and commands Battalion, ATTENTION and Present, ARMS so that the unit is at Present Arms when the first note of “To the Color” or National Anthem is sounded. The adjutant then faces about and executes Present Arms. The adjutant’s Salute is the signal for the band to begin playing “To the Color.”

c. At the last note of “To the Color” or the National Anthem, the adjutant faces about, commands Order, ARMS, and then directs TAKE CHARGE OF YOUR UNITS. Unit commanders render the Hand Salute. The adjutant returns all Salutes with one Salute. This terminates the retreat formation.

NOTE: When subordinate units stand retreat, not as a part of a major command, the sequence is the same except the unit commander gives the commands.

13-3. COMMAND RETREAT HISTORY

Command retreat is a ceremony conducted with all members of the command present. Normally, it is conducted by a battalion or larger unit. In the 18th century, command retreat was a daily occurrence, not to honor the flag but as a signal for units to call the roll as a final accounting before reveille the following morning.

13-4. COMMAND RETREAT SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

The sequence of events for conducting command retreat are discussed herein.

a. The unit is formed in line formation facing the flag (if possible). Subunits may be in mass formation. Subunits are brought to Attention at the approach of the commander and his staff, or at a predesignated signal.

b. The commander of troops forms his staff in line, takes his position two steps in front of the staff, and marches them to a position centered on and in front of the line of troops. He gives the proper commands to have himself and his staff facing the line of troops when halted.

c. The adjutant, as soon as the staff is halted and without command, moves from his position with the staff to a position midway between the commander of troops and the line of unit commanders. The adjutant commands REPORT. All unit commanders salute and report in succession from right to left "Sir, company all present or accounted for." The adjutant returns each Salute. The adjutant then commands Present, ARMS, faces about, salutes, and reports to the commander of troops "Sir, all present or accounted for."

d. The commander of troops returns the Salute and directs POST. The adjutant moves to his position with the staff. The commander of troops commands Order, ARMS.

e. The left flank member of the staff gives the commands to move the staff from behind the commander of troops to a position two steps in front of the commander of troops. The commander of troops commands Parade, REST. If a band or field music is to be used, the commander comes to Attention at the appointed time and commands SOUND RETREAT. He then returns to Parade Rest.

f. On the last note of "Retreat," the evening gun is fired and the commander of troops commands Battalion, ATTENTION and Present, ARMS. He then executes About Face and commands himself and his staff to Present, ARMS. The commander's Salute is the signal for the band to begin playing "To the Color" or the National Anthem as the flag is lowered.

g. After the last note of music, the commander of troops commands himself and his staff to Order, ARMS, faces about, commands Order, ARMS and directs TAKE CHARGE OF YOUR UNITS. The unit commanders render the Hand Salute. The commander of troops returns all Salutes with one Salute. The commander of troops marches his staff away or dismisses them at this time.

13-5. REVEILLE HISTORY

Reveille was not originally intended as honors to the flag. In 1812, it was a drum call to signify that Soldiers should rise for day duty and sentries should leave off night challenging. As time passed, reveille came to denote when the flag was raised in the morning and honors paid to it.

13-6. REVEILLE SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

The sequence of events for conducting reveille are discussed herein.

a. The unit is formed facing the flag five minutes (if possible) before the sounding of reveille. Four minutes before the sounding of reveille, the adjutant or other appointed officer (normally the duty officer) takes his position centered on the line of troops, commands the unit to ATTENTION, and commands REPORT.

b. All subunits (companies, batteries, or troops) report in succession from right to left, “Sir, _____ Company, all present or accounted for,” or “Sir, _____ Company, _____ men absent.” Salutes are exchanged with each report.

c. The adjutant commands Parade, REST and then assumes Parade Rest himself. If a band is present, about 30 seconds before reveille, the adjutant commands ATTENTION, directs SOUND REVEILLE, commands Present, ARMS, and then faces about. The adjutant’s Salute is the signal for the band to sound reveille and to fire the morning gun. When reveille is sounded by a recording, the call ATTENTION is sounded about 30 seconds before reveille. This ensures that the adjutant has sufficient time to command the units to Present, ARMS before the first note of reveille.

d. After the last note of reveille has sounded, the adjutant terminates his Salute, faces about, commands Order, ARMS, and then directs TAKE CHARGE OF YOUR UNITS. The adjutant returns all Salutes with one Salute. This terminates the ceremony.

NOTE: When a unit conducts the reveille ceremony not as a member of a major command, battalion, or company, the sequence of events remains the same except the unit commander gives all commands.

13-7. COMMAND REVEILLE HISTORY

Command reveille is conducted with all members of the command present. Normally, Command reveille is conducted by a battalion or larger unit. Command reveille was conducted as Troop in 1812 and was used to muster the unit or for roll call.

13-8. COMMAND REVEILLE SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

The sequence of events for conducting command reveille are discussed herein.

a. The unit is formed in line formation facing the flag, if possible. Subunits may be in mass formation. Subunits are commanded to Attention at the approach of the commander and his staff.

b. The commander of troops takes his post two steps in front of and centered on his staff, commands Forward, MARCH, and marches his staff to a position centered on and in front of the line of troops. The commander of troops gives the proper commands to halt his staff in a position facing the line of troops.

c. As soon as the staff is halted by the commander of troops, the adjutant moves (without command) from his position with the staff to a position midway between the commander of troops and the line of unit commanders. The adjutant commands Present, ARMS, faces the commander of troops, salutes, and reports “Sir, the battalion (brigade) is formed.”

d. The commander of troops returns the Salute and directs the adjutant to receive the reports. The adjutant faces about and commands Order, ARMS and REPORT.

e. Unit commanders salute and report, in succession from right to left, “Sir, _____ Company, all present or accounted for.” The adjutant returns each unit commander’s Salute. After all unit commanders have reported, the adjutant faces the commander of troops, salutes, and reports “Sir, all present or accounted for.” The commander of troops returns the Salute and directs the adjutant to publish the orders.

f. The adjutant faces about without saluting and commands ATTENTION TO ORDERS. The adjutant then reads any orders or makes any announcements the commander of troops wishes to publish. The adjutant, on completion of the publishing of orders, faces about and takes his post with the staff without saluting.

g. When the adjutant is in position, the left flank staff member commands Right, FACE; Forward, MARCH; Column Left, MARCH; Column Left, MARCH. When the staff is centered on the commander of troops, he then commands Staff, HALT; Left, FACE. About 30 seconds before the sounding of reveille, the commander of troops commands Present, ARMS, executes About Face and commands Staff, Present, ARMS. Reveille is then sounded either by record, field music, or band as the flag is raised.

h. At the first note of "Reveille," the morning gun is fired. After the last note of music, the commander of troops commands Staff, Order, ARMS, executes About Face, and commands Order, ARMS; he then directs, TAKE CHARGE OF YOUR UNITS. The unit commanders salute. The commander of troops returns all Salutes with one Salute. He then marches his staff away or dismisses them. This terminates the ceremony.

Chapter 14

FUNERALS

The funerals of Soldiers, more than any other ceremony, have followed an old pattern as the living honor the brave dead.

14-1. HISTORY

Funeral services of great magnificence evolved as custom (from what is known about early Christian mourning) in the 6th century. To this day, no religious ceremonies are conducted with more pomp than those intended to commemorate the departed.

a. The first general mourning proclaimed in America was on the death of Benjamin Franklin in 1791. The second was the death of George Washington in 1799. The deep and widespread grief occasioned by the death of the first President assembled a great number of people for the purpose of paying him a last tribute of respect. On Wednesday, 18 December 1799, attended by military honors and the simplest but grandest ceremonies of religion, his body was deposited in the family vault at Mount Vernon, Virginia.

b. Several military traditions employed today have been brought forward from the past.

(1) Reversed arms, displayed by one opponent on the battlefield, signaled that a truce was requested so that the dead and wounded could be carried off and the dead buried.

(2) Today's customary three volleys fired over a grave probably originated as far back as the Roman Empire. The Roman funeral rites of casting dirt three times on the coffin constituted the "burial." It was customary among the Romans to call the dead three times by name, which ended the funeral ceremony, after which the friends and relatives of the deceased pronounced the word "vale" (farewell) three times as they departed from the tomb. In more recent history, three musket volleys were fired to announce that the burying of the dead was completed and the burial party was ready for battle again.

(3) The custom of using a caisson to carry a coffin most likely had its origins in the 1800s when horse-drawn caissons that pulled artillery pieces also doubled as a conveyance to clear fallen Soldiers from the battlefield.

(4) In the mid to late 1800s a funeral procession of a mounted officer or enlisted man was accompanied by a riderless horse in mourning caparison followed by a hearse. It was also a custom to have the boots of the deceased thrown over the saddle with heels to the front signifying that his march was ended.

14-2. CLASSES OF MILITARY FUNERALS AND TYPES OF HONORS

Military funerals are divided into two classes: chapel service, followed by movement to the grave or place of local disposition with the prescribed escort; and graveside service only. Burial honors and the composition of funeral escorts are described in Chapter 6, AR 600-25. The types of honors ceremonies that may be performed are described below.

a. A full military funeral honors normally consist of, or is supported by, a 9-person funeral detail, with the following elements.

- Casualty assistance officer (CAO).
- Officer in charge (OIC) or noncommissioned officer in charge (NCOIC) (appropriate for the rank of the deceased).
- One bugler to play "Taps" (or electronic recording).

- Six active duty pallbearers/firing party (dual function, the pallbearers also serve as the firing party and will render these honors).
 - Military clergy (if available and requested).
- b. If resources permit, a larger funeral detail may be provided, which is composed of all the elements of the nine-person funeral detail, and may also include the following.
- Colors.
 - Separate firing party (no more than eight, or less than five riflemen).
 - Hearse (caisson).
 - Honorary pallbearers.
 - Personal colors (if appropriate).
 - Escort unit(s) (appropriate for the rank of the deceased).
- c. A two-man military funeral honors detail consists of the following elements.
- OIC/NCOIC (appropriate for the rank of the deceased).
 - Enlisted Soldier.
 - One bugler to play "Taps" (or electronic recording).

14-3. INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITIES

The Casualty Assistance Center (CAC) provides burial honors, for deceased Army personnel, including active duty and retired personnel as well as eligible reserve components and veterans when requested by the family. Active duty Soldiers will receive burial with full military funeral honors, to be provided by a nine-person funeral detail as described in paragraph 14-2 (a). Retirees are entitled to full military funeral honors, resource permitting, but as a minimum, will receive funeral honors consisting of two uniformed Soldiers to fold the flag and present it to the next of kin, and play "Taps." Eligible members of the reserve component and veterans will also receive funeral honors from a two-person detail. Medal of Honor recipients are entitled to full military funeral honors, regardless of status. A live bugler is preferred, however, if none is available, "Taps" may be played on a suitable recording device, but a live bugler is required for all active duty funerals. The family of the deceased (or its representative) may request another clergyman to officiate in lieu of a military chaplain. A civilian clergyman can conduct all religious elements of a military funeral or interment. The desires of the family are given the fullest consideration possible in the selection of elements involved, but the funeral is conducted as prescribed in this manual. For further information, consult AR 600-25, Chapter 6. The responsibilities of the individuals involved in a military funeral are as follows:

- a. Casualty Assistance Office. The casualty assistance office provides funeral detail requirements and the CAO's name and phone number to the funeral detail NCOIC. It also coordinates bugler commitments.
- b. Funeral Detail NCOIC. The funeral detail NCOIC—
- Provides the name of the NCOIC and the bugler pick-up time to the casualty assistance office after notification of funeral detail.
 - Requests transportation for the funeral detail through the transportation division.
 - Coordinates specifics with the funeral home, clergy, and chapel concerned.
 - Coordinates the use of a portable CD player for playing "Taps," if needed.
 - Ensures all personnel participating in the funeral detail arrive at the designated place in sufficient time to make final coordination.

- c. Transportation Division. The transportation division provides transportation for funeral details, as required.
- d. Casualty Assistance Officer. The CAO—
- Coordinates the ceremonial aspects of the funeral.
 - Ensures the chaplain receives a flag from the local Post Office or the installation.
 - Acts as OIC for the funeral detail and presents the flag to the deceased's next of kin, when required.
- e. Commanding Officer. The commanding officer or his representative, in coordination with the cemetery superintendent and the funeral director, makes the funeral arrangements and supervises the conduct of the funeral.

14-4. PERSONNEL CONDUCT

Personnel involved with military funerals conduct themselves as described herein.

a. When honorary pallbearers are desired, they are selected by the family of the deceased, or its representative, or by the commanding officer if the family wishes. As a rule, no more than twelve honorary pallbearers should be selected.

b. At a military funeral, persons in military uniform attending in their individual capacity face the casket and execute the Hand Salute at the following times: when honors, if any, are sounded; at any time the casket is being moved (the exception being when they themselves are moving); during Cannon Salutes, if sounded; during the firing of volleys; and while "Taps" is being played.

(1) Honorary pallbearers in uniform conform to those instructions when not in motion.

(2) Male military personnel in civilian clothes in the above cases, and during the service at the grave, stand at Attention, uncover, and hold the headdress over the left shoulder with the right hand over the heart. If no headdress is worn, the right hand is held over the heart.

(3) Female military personnel in civilian clothes hold the right hand over the heart.

c. During the religious graveside service, all personnel bow their heads at the words "Let us pray." All mourners at graveside, except the active pallbearers, follow the example of the officiating chaplain. If he uncovers, they uncover; if he remains covered, they remain covered. When the officiating chaplain wears a biretta (clerical headpiece) during the graveside service, all personnel, as indicated above, uncover. When the officiating chaplain wears a yarmulke (Jewish skull cap), all personnel remain covered.

d. The remains of a member of the armed forces who died while on active duty, may be consigned directly to a national cemetery from a military installation. In such cases, the cemetery superintendent will, regardless of time of arrival, if not otherwise provided for, engage a funeral director to receive the remains at the common carrier terminal, hold the remains at his establishment until the date of the funeral, if necessary, and deliver the remains to the cemetery. The superintendent will not authorize a funeral director to render any other service incident to the interment.

e. The word "chapel" is interpreted to include the church, home, or other place where services are held, other than the service at the grave. The word "casket" is interpreted to include the receptacle containing the cremated remains of the deceased.

14-5. FUNERAL WITH CHAPEL SERVICE (FULL-MILITARY HONORS-NINE PERSON FUNERAL HONORS DETAIL)

Use the following procedures to conduct a funeral in a chapel with full military honors.

a. At the chapel, the funeral detail forms as shown in Figure 14-1. The NCOIC has all participants at the position of Parade Rest. The NCOIC and the pallbearers will be on line at normal intervals facing the chapel and close to the designated arrival point of the conveyance. The NCOIC positions himself at the end of the pallbearers so that the conveyance passes him first as it approaches. If resources permit and there is a separate firing party, they will form two ranks facing each other and form an aisle from the conveyance to the entrance of the chapel.

b. Members of the immediate family, relatives, friends of the deceased, and the CAO will be seated in the chapel before the conveyance arrives and the casket is taken into the chapel. Members of the immediate family and relatives occupy pews (seats) to the right (front) of the chapel.

c. As the conveyance comes into view, the NCOIC will command the pallbearers to ATTENTION and render a solo hand salute as the conveyance approaches. Once the conveyance stops in front of the chapel, the NCOIC will automatically Order Arms. If a separate firing party exists the following actions will be taken. The NCOIC commands Escort, ATTENTION; Pallbearers, Center, FACE. On the command Center, FACE, the pallbearers face the designated arrival point of the conveyance (Figure 14-1, page 14-4). As the conveyance approaches, the NCOIC commands Present, ARMS and salutes to honor the National Colors draped over the casket and commands Order, ARMS after the conveyance halts.

d. If necessary, the NCOIC repositions the pallbearers at the rear of the conveyance.

e. After the funeral director opens the doors of the hearse, the NCOIC and the firing party, if available, Present Arms. The firing party and the NCOIC Present Arms until the casket enters the chapel. The senior pallbearer, designated position 5, and the pallbearer in position 1 grasp the handles at the head of the casket. (The union of the flag is draped over this end.) They walk backwards, pulling the casket from the conveyance, allowing the pallbearers in positions 2 and 3 to grasp handles on the casket. The pallbearers handle the remains in a dignified, reverent, and military manner, ensuring the casket is carried level and feet first at all times (Figure 14-2).

f. For funerals where there is a separate firing party, once the casket is borne between the firing party members, and taken into the chapel, the NCOIC commands Order, ARMS. The firing party departs under the control of the firing party commander and travels to the gravesite. Once at the gravesite, the firing party makes preparations for the gravesite ceremony. The bugler, if not already at the gravesite, travels with the firing party.

g. Having entered the chapel, the pallbearers carry the casket to the front of the church. If a church truck is available, the casket is placed on the truck at the entrance of the chapel and pushed to the front by the senior pallbearer and one other. The pallbearers then take seats, as directed by the chaplain, until the conclusion of the chapel service.

h. For information on how to display the U.S. Flag on the casket, either closed or half-couch, consult DA Pamphlet 638-2, Appendix E.

i. After the service, the pallbearers either carry the casket or push it on a church truck from the front of the chapel to the exit. The casket is placed directly into the conveyance with the senior and number 1 pallbearers being the last to release their casket handles. The funeral director secures the doors of the conveyance.

j. The pallbearers board their transportation and travel to the interment site to prepare for the gravesite ceremony. The funeral party travels in the following order (Figure 14-3, page 14-7):

- Clergy.
- Conveyance with casket.

- Active pallbearers.
- Personal flag (if appropriate).
- Family and CAO.
- Friends.

k. After the procession is formed, it travels directly to the gravesite. Upon arrival, the CAO positions himself between the chaplain and the head of the gravesite. The pallbearers form and remove the casket from the conveyance the same as previously outlined (Figure 14-4).

l. Once the casket is removed from the conveyance, the NCOIC commands the firing party (if resources permit a separate firing party) and bugler to Present Arms.

m. The pallbearers carry the casket, feet first, to the grave. Upon reaching the grave, the casket is placed on the lowering device. The pallbearers then execute the appropriate facing movement and march off in two ranks toward the designated firing party location. While marching, the pallbearers merge into single file in order to form one rank, 45 degrees off the foot of the casket. The firing party commander is positioned on the opposite flank or centered to the rear of the formation (Figure 14-4). At that time, the firing party commander will command the firing party to unstack their weapons, which have been pre-positioned under guard at the gravesite, and then to stand at "Parade Rest" during the gravesite service.

n. When the casket is placed over the grave, and the pallbearers march from the casket to become the firing party, the NCOIC terminates his salute and moves from his place at the head of the casket in order to permit the chaplain to conduct the graveside service. He should move to a location where he still faces the family, but does not interfere with the service. Once in position, he assumes the position of Parade Rest until the service is completed.

o. After Parade Rest has been commanded, the chaplain conducts the graveside service. At the conclusion of the benediction, the NCOIC returns to his position at the head of the casket, renders a hand salute, which also cues the firing party commander to commence the firing party sequence, as outlined in paragraph 14-17. The CAO also executes Present Arms. The firing party fires three volleys of blank cartridges, assumes the position of Present Arms at the command of the firing party commander, and remains in this position until the conclusion of "Taps." The bugler, positioned near the firing party and in view of the next of kin, sounds "Taps" immediately following the firing party assuming Present Arms.

p. At the conclusion of "Taps," the firing party comes to Order Arms at the command of the firing party commander, and restacks their weapons in a ceremonial manner. After the stacking of weapons is completed, the firing party forms into two ranks and marches in the most direct route back to the lowering device platform so they can perform the ceremonial folding of the interment flag (Figure 14-4). The CAO terminates his Salute.

q. The pallbearers raise the flag from the casket and hold it in a horizontal position waist high and complete the folding sequence without letting the flag touch the casket. As the flag is folded, it is passed to the senior pallbearer at the head of the casket, who makes the final tuck. (See Appendix K for detailed information on folding the flag.)

r. After the flag is folded, the senior pallbearer executes a Right Face and places the flag at chest level into the hands of the CAO. The CAO salutes the flag for three seconds before accepting it from the senior pallbearer. The senior pallbearer salutes the flag for three seconds after presenting it to the CAO. The CAO then moves by the most direct route to the next of kin who is to receive the flag. Upon presentation, the CAO renders appropriate remarks such as, "Sir/Ma'am, this flag is presented on behalf of a grateful nation as an expression of appreciation for the honorable and faithful service rendered by your loved one." After the flag is presented, the CAO returns to his original position.

s. After the presentation is completed, the NCOIC marches the pallbearers and the bugler away from the gravesite and toward the stacked weapons. At the first Halt, the rifles of the firing party are then cleared and inspected, which concludes the ceremony.

14-6. TWO-MAN HONOR DETAIL

A two-man honor detail provides graveside honors by the playing of "Taps" and the flag folding and presentation to the appropriate family member. Use the following procedures to conduct a military funeral with a two-man honor detail.

a. Once the Army CAC is alerted, it arranges for the two-man military honor detail to arrive at the interment site at the appropriate time to provide graveside honors.

(1) The leader of the detail has many responsibilities to include contacting the funeral director to confirm the date, time, and location of the interment service. The leader ensures that the funeral director has obtained a flag for the ceremony. The detail leader will bring a backup flag to the ceremony in case it is needed.

(2) The leader confirms and coordinates participation of the second member of the detail.

(3) When all coordination is completed, the final preinterment activity is to train and rehearse the detail. A mandatory training item is to carefully watch a video demonstration tape provided by DOD to each installation.

(4) On the day of the interment ceremony, the detail leader confirms arrangements with the funeral director and coordinates necessary cues at the interment site.

b. The rendition of "Taps" may be by bugler or by electronic device.

(1) The CAC actively searches for a bugler. (Military or civilian may be used.) Bugler support may be from an Army band (Active or Reserve component), contracted, or voluntary.

(2) If a bugler is not available, the CAC uses the high-quality recording of the U.S. Army band bugler provided by OSD on compact disk. Many national and private cemeteries have sound systems that play "Taps" at the interment site. However, CACs cannot assume availability of such systems and must have a sufficient number of high-quality, portable CD players to provide their own sound system at funerals. (A portable CD player that can be easily heard by all attendees at the interment ceremony is recommended.) Before departing for a funeral, the detail leader must determine if a sound system is available or if the CAC must provide a sound system to the honors detail.

c. The detail arrives at the interment site early and conducts a reconnaissance and rehearsal. Part of the reconnaissance is the selection of a location for the bugler or CD player that will sound "Taps." The detail leader sets up and tests the CD player, ensuring the unit and its remote controls are working properly and that it is out of sight of the family.

(1) When everything is prepared, the detail leader positions the detail in their designated place before the arrival of the funeral cortege. The detail leader positions himself near the recording device; the other members(s) will be positioned near the foot of the grave.

(2) The leader brings the team to Attention and Present Arms as the remains are carried to the gravesite by civilian pallbearers. He commands Order, ARMS when the casket is placed on the lowering device.

(3) At the conclusion of the committal service, the detail leader sounds "Taps" electronically or directs the bugler to sound "Taps." Installations must ensure that honor detail training directs that the recording device be positioned out of sight of the family and be played in a dignified manner as shown in the training video from DOD.

(4) Although the CD player should be out of sight, activating the "play" button should be performed with precision and distinction by bending over, activating the recorder, and then stepping back one step and assuming the Position of Attention.

(5) Each detail member will Present Arms during "Taps" and will execute Order Arms at its completion. At the conclusion of "Taps," the detail leader ensures the recording device is turned off and then proceeds in a dignified and military manner to the head of the casket.

d. For flag folding, upon conclusion of "Taps," the representative and his assistant move closer to the casket. When the flag is secured and raised, the detail takes three steps away from the mourners and folds the flag. (See Appendix K for detailed information on folding the flag.) When the flag is properly folded, the detail leader salutes the flag for three seconds. The assistant hands the flag to the detail leader, salutes the flag for three seconds, and posts to a position next to the side or rear of the family. After the assistant departs, the detail leader presents the flag to the next of kin using the following wording: "Sir/Ma'am, this flag is presented on behalf of a grateful nation as an expression of appreciation for the honorable and faithful service rendered by your loved one." After presenting the flag, the detail leader offers condolences.

e. Not all funerals will be authorized the human resources as outlined in this sequence of events; therefore the CAO and NCOIC will extract those portions of the sequence that apply to their funeral detail contingent.

f. Additions to an element of the funeral detail not specifically addressed in this sequence of events are not authorized. Requests for exceptions to policy will be directed to TRADOC.

NOTE: If a military chaplain is present, he/she presents the flag to the next of kin.

14-7. GRAVESIDE SERVICE

For a funeral without chapel service, all elements of a military funeral are present and used as previously described. However, if troops are not conveniently available, or if the family wishes to eliminate other elements, the following are used (Figure 14-5):

- Military clergy (if available and requested).
- Officer in charge or noncommissioned officer in charge, appropriate to the grade of the deceased (AR 600-25).
- Active pallbearers/firing party.
- Separate firing party (if resources permit).
- Bugler.
- Personal Color bearer (if appropriate).

These elements are in position at the graveside before the arrival of the remains.

14-8. CREMATED REMAINS

When the remains are cremated and the ashes interred with military honors, the previously stated provisions, with necessary modifications, will govern.

a. For all phases of the funeral, where the cremated remains are carried by hand, one pallbearer is detailed to carry the receptacle (casket) containing the ashes and another is detailed to carry the flag, folded into the shape of a cocked hat. The pallbearer carrying the flag is always positioned to the right of the remains (Figure 14-6, page 14-13). When the receptacle is carried from the hearse into the chapel and from the chapel to the hearse, these two pallbearers are the only participants in the ceremony. During the procession to the gravesite, the receptacle and flag are carried by the two pallbearers followed by four additional pallbearers. When the receptacle has been placed on the gravesite, all six pallbearers unfold the flag and hold it over the grave. (Honors are the same as a flag-draped casket.)

b. When the receptacle and flag are placed before the chancel of the chapel or transported to gravesite by vehicle, the receptacle and folded flag are placed side by side. If the pallbearers walk to the gravesite, the two bearers who carried the receptacle and the flag join the other four pallbearers already pre-positioned on either side of the hearse.

c. When no hearse is used, suitable transportation is provided for the receptacle and flag bearers, and the other pallbearers.

d. When the remains are moved to a crematory and the ashes are to be interred with military honors at a later time, the ceremony consists only of the escort to the crematory. All personnel salute as the remains are carried into the crematory. The firing of volleys and the sounding of "Taps" are omitted. When the funeral ceremony is held at the crematory, and when no further honors are anticipated, the volleys are fired and "Taps" is sounded at the discretion of the commanding officer.

NOTE: In this situation, the flag is carried left hand over right hand with the point forward.

14-9. CEREMONY BEFORE SHIPMENT OF REMAINS

When the remains of a deceased Soldier are moved to a railway station or other point for shipment to another place for interment or final disposition, funeral services are modified as necessary. When no further military honors are anticipated at the place of interment or final disposition, the volleys are fired and "Taps" sounded at the discretion of the commanding officer. When military honors are anticipated at the place of final disposition, the volleys and "Taps" are omitted.

14-10. CANNON SALUTE

When the funeral of a general officer on the active or retired list, who was entitled to a Cannon Salute, takes place at or near a military installation, guns equal to the number to which the officer was entitled (AR 600-25) may be fired at noon on the day of the funeral. The military installation mentioned in general orders will fire the prescribed Salutes. Immediately preceding the benediction, a Cannon Salute corresponding to the grade of the deceased (AR 600-25) is fired at five-second intervals. Following the benediction, three volleys of musketry are fired.

14-11. PARTICIPATION OF AVIATION

When aviation participates in a military funeral, it is timed so that the aircraft appear over the procession.

14-12. PARTICIPATION OF RESERVE COMPONENTS

The Reserve Component (RC), along with the active Army, are required to participate in funeral details. The Army National Guard (ARNG) and U.S. Army Reserve (USAR) have a single point of contact (POC) in each ARNG state area command (STARC) or USAR Regional Support Command (RSC) to which a request for assistance can be made. When the active Army is unable to support the request, or it is more prudent for the RC unit to provide honors, the CAC contacts the RC POC at either the STARC or RSC for military funeral honors support. If the RC POC does not respond to the request for support within two hours, the CAC should again contact the RC POC. When the RC is unable to support the request for assistance, the CAC is responsible for providing the honors. The casualty and memorial affairs operations center, PERSCOM will provide a list of RC POCs to the CACs. CACs should establish memorandums of agreement with RC POCs and other military organizations within their area of responsibility specifying requirements and responsibilities.

14-13. PARTICIPATION OF FRATERNAL OR PATRIOTIC ORGANIZATIONS

The family or representative of the deceased may request fraternal or patriotic organizations, of which the deceased was a member, to take part in the funeral service. With immediate family approval fraternal or patriotic organizations may conduct graveside service at the conclusion of the military portion of the ceremony, signified by the flag presentation to the next of kin and escort departure from the cemetery.

14-14. DUTIES OF THE CHAPLAIN

The chaplain takes his position in front of the chapel before the arrival of the remains. He precedes the casket when it is carried from the hearse into the chapel and from the chapel to the hearse. While the remains are being placed in the hearse, he stands at the rear and to the side facing the hearse. When he is wearing vestments, he may, at his discretion, proceed from the chancel to the sacristy (vestry) at the conclusion of the chapel service and divest, joining the procession before it moves from the chapel. He then precedes the hearse to the graveside and precedes the casket to the grave.

14-15. PRELIMINARY ARRANGEMENTS

The officer in charge of a military funeral, the commander of the escort, the funeral director, and the superintendent of the cemetery or his representative visit the places involved and make careful arrangements before the time set for the funeral. They determine the positions at the grave for the various elements of the funeral and make arrangements for traffic control.

14-16. FLORAL TRIBUTES

In the absence of the chaplain, the chaplain's assistant helps the funeral director in arranging all floral tributes in the chapel. The commanding officer or his representative coordinates the necessary transportation with the funeral director for prompt transfer of floral tributes from the chapel to the gravesite. The vehicle bearing the floral tributes is loaded promptly at the conclusion of the chapel service. It precedes the funeral procession, moving as rapidly as practicable to the site of the grave. The funeral procession does not move from the chapel until the vehicle carrying the floral tributes has cleared the escort. The funeral director or the cemetery representative is responsible for removing cards and making a record that gives a brief description of the floral piece pertaining to each card. After completion of the funeral services, the cards and records are turned over to a member of the family of the deceased.

14-17. RULES FOR CEREMONIAL FIRING

For ceremonial firing, the firing party consists of not more than eight riflemen and not less than five with one noncommissioned officer in charge (Figure 14-7, page 14-16). The firing party is normally pre-positioned at the gravesite and facing in the direction that allows it to fire directly over the grave. However, care should be taken to ensure that rifles are fired at a 45-degree angle from the horizontal.

a. To load:

(1) Magazines or clips are loaded with three rounds and blank adapters are attached before forming the firing party.

(2) At the conclusion of the religious services or on the escort commander's command, the noncommissioned officer in charge commands With blank ammunition, LOAD. At the command LOAD, each rifleman executes Port Arms, faces to the half right, and moves his right foot 10 inches to the right to a position that gives him a firm, steady stance. He then chambers a round, places the weapon in the safe position, and resumes Port Arms.

b. To fire by volley:

(1) When the riflemen have completed the movements and the weapons are locked, the commands are Ready, Aim, FIRE. At the command Ready, each rifleman moves the safety to the fire position. On the command Aim, the rifle is shouldered with both hands with the muzzle to the front at an angle of 45 degrees from the horizontal. On the command of execution FIRE, the trigger is squeezed quickly, and the weapon is immediately returned to Port Arms.

(2) To continue the firing with weapons that function automatically (blank adapter), the commands Aim and FIRE are given and executed as previously prescribed. To continue the firing with weapons that must be manually operated to chamber another round (without blank adapters), the commands Ready, Aim, FIRE are again given. On the command Ready, each rifleman manually chambers the next round. The commands Aim and FIRE are then given and executed as previously prescribed.

(3) When the third round has been fired and the riflemen have resumed Port Arms, the noncommissioned officer in charge commands CEASE FIRING. The riflemen immediately place the weapon on safe, assume the Position of Attention (at Port Arms), and face to half left. From this position, the firing party is commanded to Present Arms before the playing of "Taps." After "Taps," they are commanded to Order Arms. The noncommissioned officer in charge executes a Right (Left) Face and remains at Attention until the flag has been folded and saluted by the officer in charge or noncommissioned officer in charge of the funeral detail. At this time, the firing party noncommissioned officer in charge executes a Right (Left) Face and commands Right (Left), FACE; Port, ARMS; and Forward, MARCH. At the first halt, the rifles of the firing party are cleared and inspected.

COLORS

From the earliest times, warriors used a banner or other symbol to identify specific units and to serve as a rallying point for troops. In medieval days, the standard or banner was used to signal a general assault, which was generated by a cry of "Advance your banners." Until comparatively recent years, the flags that identified nations usually were based on the personal or family heraldry of the reigning monarch or ruling nobleman. As autocracies faded or disappeared, dynastic colors were no longer popular and national flags, as thought of today, came into being. These national flags, such as the Union Jack of Great Britain, the Tricolor of France, and the Stars and Stripes, are relatively new to history.

15-1. HISTORY

Flags are almost as old as civilization itself. Imperial Egypt as well as the armies of Babylon, Chaldea, and Assyria followed the colors of their kings. The Old Testament frequently mentions banners and standards. Many flags of different designs were present in parts of the American colonies before the Revolution. When the struggle for independence united the colonies, the colonists wanted a single flag to represent the new nation. The first flag borne by the Army as a representative of the 13 colonies was the Grand Union flag. It was raised over the Continental Army at Cambridge, Massachusetts, on 2 January 1776. That flag had the familiar 13 stripes (red and white) of the present flag, but the blue square contained the Crosses of St. George and St. Andrew from the British flag.

a. The Stars and Stripes was born on 14 June 1777, two years to the day after the birth of the Army. On that date, Congress resolved that the flag of the United States be 13 stripes, alternate red and white, and that the union be 13 stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation. The arrangement of the stars on the blue field was not specified.

(1) According to some historians, the Stars and Stripes was first raised over Fort Stanwix, New York, on 3 August 1777. In that Army version of the flag, the stars were arranged in a circle. (The Navy version had the stars arranged to form crosses similar to the British flag.)

(2) When Vermont and Kentucky joined the Union, the flag was modified so that there were 15 stars and 15 stripes. It was that flag, flying triumphantly over Fort McHenry, Maryland, on 13 and 14 September 1814, which inspired Francis Scott Key to compose the verses of "The Star Spangled Banner." That flag was the national banner from 1795 until 1818. Thus, when it was raised over Tripoli by the Marines in 1805, it was the first United States flag to be hoisted over conquered territory in the Old World. Later, it was flown by General Andrew Jackson at the Battle of New Orleans.

(3) Realizing that adding a stripe for each new state would soon spoil the appearance of the flag, Congress passed a law in 1818 fixing the number of stripes at 13 and providing for the addition of a star in the Blue Union for each new state. The star is to be added and the new flag to become official on the Fourth of July following the admission of the new state to the Union.

(4) It was not until shortly before the Civil War that the Stars and Stripes actually became the National Color.

b. Before the Civil War, in lieu of a National Color, the U.S. Soldiers carried a blue silk color on which was embroidered the arms of the United States, and an American eagle bearing a shield on its breast, and in its talons an olive branch and arrows, signifying peace and war. After the National Color was authorized, the organizational color with the eagle became the regimental color. Because of the high casualty rate among the members of the Color party, plus the advent of modern weapons, the time-honored practice of carrying the Colors in battle was discontinued. Today, the Colors, with battle streamers attached, join their unit in formations during ceremonies to signify their presence during past battles.

15-2. THE COLOR AND COLORS

The National and organizational flags carried by Color-bearing units are called the National Color and the organizational Color. When used singularly, the term Color implies the National Color. The plural term Colors means the national and positional or organizational Colors. By regulation, the organizational Color is not authorized a Salute; however, in the past some organizations have observed the custom of saluting the organizational Color.

a. In garrison, the Colors are normally kept at the office or headquarters of the commanding officer. They are escorted to and from the headquarters or office by the Color guard. In the field, the Colors are normally displayed from reveille to retreat in front of the commanding officer's tent or command post. During inclement weather, they are cased and placed in the commanding officer's office, headquarters, or tent.

b. Individuals or units passing or being passed by uncased Colors out of doors render honors. Individuals, not part of a formation, salute six steps distance from the Colors and hold the Salute until they have passed six steps beyond the Colors. The individual in charge of a formation calls the formation to ATTENTION and Present, ARMS.

c. The Colors may be carried in any formation in which two or more companies, honor guards, or representative elements of a command participate.

d. Traditionally, the command sergeant major is responsible for the safeguarding, care, and display of the organizational Color. He is also responsible for the selection, training, and performance of the Color bearers and Color guards.

e. The regulation for individual flags and distinguishing flags for general officers and other dignitaries is the same as that for organizational Colors (AR 840-10).

f. During a review, parade, or honor guard ceremony, ordinarily only one National Color is present. The National Color is given the honor position and is carried on the marching right of positional and organizational Colors. The United States Army flag or the Army field flag (when authorized) is carried to the immediate left of the National Color. The organizational Color of the senior headquarters sponsoring the ceremony is carried to the left of the Army flag or field flag, if present. The Colors belonging to the headquarters conducting the ceremonies are positioned on line with and centered on the command. Subordinate Color-bearing organizations ordinarily carry only their organizational Colors (four steps to the rear of their staff).

g. When the local commander wishes, or considers it more appropriate, he may authorize subordinate Color-bearing organizations to carry their National Color with their organizational Colors behind their staffs. Consideration must be given as to the number of times the spectators will be required to stand during the pass in review. Also, consideration must be given to the frequency of Salutes required by the reviewing officer.

(1) Another method in which subordinate Color-bearing units may carry their Colors is to have them participate in a massed Colors formation. Because of many complications caused by massed Colors, units should prescribe a local SOP governing the desired procedures.

(2) Examples of complications include: organizational Colors lose their identity, order of precedence, resizing of Color guards and bearers, uniformity when the first rank consists of five men rather than four, and presenting a good appearance when returning to the formation after being brought forward while keeping the National Color on the marching right.

h. When Colors are participating in a ceremony they will be received and dismissed as described in paragraphs 15-5 and 15-7.

15-3. SALUTES

The National Color renders no Salute (dip). An exception to this rule is followed by naval vessels when, upon receiving a Salute of this type from a vessel registered by a nation formally recognized by the United States, the compliment must be returned.

a. The organizational Color salutes (dips) in all military ceremonies while the National Anthem, "To the Color," or a foreign national anthem is being played, and when rendering honors to the organizational commander or an individual of higher grade including foreign dignitaries of higher grade, but in no other case. The United States Army flag is considered to be an organizational Color and, as such, is also dipped while the National Anthem, "To the Color," or a foreign national anthem is being played, and when rendering honors to the Chief of Staff of the United States Army, his direct representative, or an individual of equivalent or higher grade, but in no other case.

b. When marching, organizational Colors salute when six steps from the person entitled to the Salute. They are returned to the Carry position when six steps beyond the person.

15-4. COLOR GUARD

The Color guard consists of two (three) sergeants and two specialists or privates. It is an honor to be selected as a member of the Color guard. The senior (Color) sergeant carries the National Color and commands the Color guard. He gives the necessary commands for the movements and for rendering honors.

a. When battalions or brigades carry their organizational Colors in a ceremony as part of a larger command, the battalion or brigade Color is carried four steps to the rear of the staff. A sergeant acts as Color bearer and two experienced specialists or privates, selected by the battalion or brigade command sergeant major, act as members of the Color guard.

c. When passing in review, the Color guard executes Eyes Right at the prescribed saluting distance on the command of the Color sergeant. The commands are Eyes, RIGHT and Ready, FRONT. The organizational color salutes at the command RIGHT, and resumes the Carry at the command FRONT. The guard on the right flank of the Color guard does not execute Eyes Right.

d. During ceremonies, the Color guard remains at Right Shoulder Arms except when executing Present Arms (as specified in subparagraph f).

e. When not participating in a ceremony and a situation occurs that warrants a Salute by the organizational Color, the Color sergeant commands Color, SALUTE. The return to the Carry is made at the command Carry, COLOR.

f. When in formation with the Color company, and not during a ceremony, the Color bearers execute At Ease and Rest, keeping the staffs of the Colors vertical. The Color guard executes Right Shoulder Arms, Order Arms, and Present Arms with the Color company. During ceremonies when the Colors are not forward and remarks are to be made, the Color guards and Color bearers execute Order Arms and Parade Rest on command of the Color company commander. During any ceremony when the units are At Ease, the Color guard and Color bearers are at Parade Rest.

g. The uniform for Color guards should be the same as prescribed for participating troops.

15-5. RECEIVING OR DISMISSING THE COLORS BY THE COLOR GUARD

a. When receiving uncased Colors on display in the commander's office, the Color guard is positioned in a single rank facing the Colors. The Color sergeant commands Present, ARMS and Order, ARMS. On completion of Order Arms, the Color bearers (without command) secure the Colors. The Color guard files outside (guard, National Color, organizational Color, guard) and reforms in a line formation. The Color guards execute Right Shoulder Arms and the Color bearers assume the Carry Position.

b. To dismiss the Colors, the procedures are basically the same except that the Colors are placed back in their stands before executing Present Arms.

15-6. CASING AND UNCASING THE COLORS

Use the following procedures to case and uncase the Colors.

a. The Color guard forms in a line formation with the cased Colors at the Carry Position (Order Position when indoors). The command sergeant major (or his direct representative) positions himself six steps in front of and centered on the formation. He then commands Sling, ARMS.

(1) The Color guards immediately adjust their slings and assume Sling Arms. The command sergeant major commands POST. The Color guards face to the Half Left (Right) in marching, take four steps, halt, and execute About Face.

(2) The command sergeant major then directs UNCASE THE COLORS. The Color bearers lower the Colors (same as Present Guidon). The two guards move forward and untie and uncase the Colors. The Color bearers unfurl and immediately return the Colors to the Carry (Order) Position. While the Colors are being unfurled, the guards fold the cases and secure them in their left hand.

(3) When the Colors are in the Carry Position, the command sergeant major commands Present, ARMS. The command sergeant major, Color guards, and the organizational Color salute.

(5) If the command sergeant major or his representative is not present, the senior Color sergeant gives the necessary commands.

b. To case the Colors, the procedures are basically the same except Present Arms is given before the Colors are lowered.

c. When casing or uncasing the Colors with the command present, the commander directs UNCASE (CASE) THE COLORS. The command sergeant major and Color guards execute the movement (as previously stated) except that they execute Present Arms and Order Arms with the Color company. When the Colors are uncased and returned to the Carry Position, the commander directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO PRESENT ARMS. After the units have executed this directive, he then directs BRING YOUR UNITS TO ORDER ARMS.

d. If the Colors are to be cased or uncased during the receiving or dismissing by the Color company, the Color guards execute Present Arms and Order Arms on command of the company commander.

e. The command sergeant major uncases the organizational Color when it is displayed by itself. He may also assist the Color guards when uncasing more than two Colors.

15-7. RECEIVING OR DISMISSING THE COLORS BY COLOR COMPANY

a. The Color company should receive the Colors before it forms with the battalion.

b. The Color company forms at Attention with the commander facing to the front as the Colors near the Color company.

c. The Color guard, guided by the senior sergeant, approaches from the front and halts 10 steps from the company commander.

d. The company commander then faces about and commands Present, ARMS, faces the Colors and salutes. He terminates his Salute, faces about, and commands Order, ARMS.

e. The specialists or privates of the Color guard execute Present Arms and return to Right Shoulder Arms on the commands of the company commander (Present Arms and Order Arms).

f. The senior sergeant then marches the Color guard to its position within the company formation. If the company is in column formation, the Color guard forms at the rear of the company. When the company is in line or mass formation, the Color guard forms at the left of the company. The Color company may join the battalion before the battalion forms at the ceremony site or join with the battalion at the ceremony site. When the Color company joins the battalion, the senior Color sergeant marches the Color guard to its appropriate post in the battalion formation.

g. The Color guard is dismissed at the conclusion of the ceremony. This can occur in the vicinity of the ceremony site, in the Color company area, or at the battalion headquarters. At the designated area, the senior sergeant marches and halts the Color guard 10 steps in front of and facing the commander of the Color company. The actions for dismissing the Colors are the same as receiving the Colors. After being dismissed, the Color guard marches to the office, headquarters, or tent of the commanding officer.

h. The Colors are received and dismissed from organizations smaller than a company, such as a funeral escort, in a similar manner.

i. Casing and uncasing the Colors may be scheduled in conjunction with receiving and dismissing the Colors.

15-8. POSTING AND RETIRING THE COLORS

Formal assemblies conducted indoors begin with the presentation of the Colors, referred to as posting the Colors, and end with the retirement of the Colors. The following instructions outline the procedures for posting and retiring the Colors, with a head table and without head table. Since indoor areas vary in size, configuration, and intended purpose, these instructions do not apply to all situations. Therefore, persons planning an indoor ceremony can modify these instructions based on their specific floor plan.

a. Posting the Colors. The Color guard forms outside the entrance to the dining area, auditorium, or meeting hall. The audience is directed to stand until the Colors are posted. If the playing of "The Star Spangled Banner" (or other appropriate music) and the invocation are scheduled, the audience will remain standing until they are completed.

(1) When the arrangements include a head table, the Color guard enters in a line formation, preferably, or forms in a line immediately inside the room and moves to a position centered on and facing the head table.

(a) When the Colors arrive at the predesignated position, the Color sergeant commands Colors, HALT, and Present, ARMS; and reports "The colors are present." The host acknowledges the report and directs POST THE COLORS. The area should be arranged to allow adequate space for the Color guard to move between the head table and the flag stand.

(c) Once the Color guard is centered on the flag stand, they mark time and the Color sergeant commands Colors, HALT and Right, FACE. The Color guard should approach the flag stands from the right to position the National Color bearer in front of the flag holder on the right, facing the audience.

(d) The Color bearers, without command, place the colors in the stand.

(2) When a head table is not used, the Color guard enters and moves to a predesignated position centered on and facing the audience. This may require the Color guard to move in a column and use Facing movements. The movement must be planned so that the National Color is always on the right when in line and is leading when in column.

b. Retiring the Colors. The audience is directed to stand for the retiring of the Colors.

(1) When a head table is used, the Color sergeant moves the Color guard to the head table.

(a) The Color sergeant commands Color guard, HALT; Present, ARMS, and reports to the host, "Sir, request permission to retire the colors." The host acknowledges the report and directs RETIRE THE COLORS.

(b) The Color sergeant commands Order, ARMS; Right, FACE; Forward, MARCH; and moves the Color guard until they are centered on the flag stand where they mark time.

(c) The Color sergeant commands Color guard, HALT; Right, FACE; Present, ARMS; and Order, ARMS. Upon completion of Order Arms the color bearers, without command, retrieve the colors and assume the Carry Position.

(2) When the head table is not used, the Color guard moves directly to the flag stands where the Colors are retrieved. The Color guard exits as previously described.

NOTE: These procedures will vary when the command sergeant major is in charge of the Colors during a formal dining-in.

15-9. MOVEMENT OF THREE-MAN COLOR GUARD TO THE REAR

To face a three-man Color guard to the rear, the command is Colors Reverse, MARCH, and each man simultaneously executes the following movements:

NOTE: This command may be given while marching, in which case the commands are given when the left foot strikes the marching surface.

15-11. MOVEMENT OF FIVE-MAN COLOR GUARD TO THE REAR

To face a five-man Color guard to the rear, the command is Colors Reverse, MARCH. At the command MARCH, each man simultaneously executes the following movements:

- a. Number 1 takes four steps forward, faces to the left in marching, takes four full steps forward, faces to the left in marching, takes four full steps in the new direction, and marks time.

- f. Numbers 2, 3, 4, and 5 mark time after completing their movements.
- g. When all men are abreast of each other, they step off together or halt, as the situation dictates (Figure 15-4).

15-12. MOVEMENT OF SIX-MAN COLOR GUARD TO THE REAR

To face a six-man Color guard to the rear, the command is Colors Reverse, MARCH. At the command MARCH, each man simultaneously executes the following movements:

- a. Number 1 takes five steps forward, faces to the left in marching, takes six full steps forward, faces to the left in marching, takes five full steps in the new direction, and marks time.
- b. Number 2 faces left while marking time, takes three full steps forward, and faces to the left in the new direction, while marking time.

- f. Number 6 takes four full steps forward, faces to the right in marching, takes six full steps forward, faces to the right in marching, takes four full steps in the new direction, and marks time.
- g. Numbers 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 mark time after completing their movement.
- h. When all men are abreast of each other, they step off together or halt, as the situation dictates (Figure 15-5).

15-13. POSITION OF THE COLORS AT THE ORDER

At the Order, rest the ferrule of the staff on the marching surface touching the outside of the right footgear opposite the ball of the right foot. Hold the staff in the right hand with the back of the hand facing outward and the fingers wrapped around the staff. Rest the staff against the hollow of the shoulder (Figure 15-6, page 15-14).

15-14. POSITION OF THE COLORS AT THE CARRY

At the Carry, rest the ferrule of the staff in the socket of the sling. The socket is below the waist and adjusted to ensure that the finials of all Colors are of equal height (Figure 15-7). Grasp the staff with the right hand (even with the mouth) and incline it slightly to the front with the left hand securing the ferrule in the socket. The left hand may be positioned immediately below the right hand to more firmly secure the Colors on windy days.

15-16. POSITION OF THE ORGANIZATIONAL COLOR AT COLOR SALUTE

This position is assumed from the carry by slipping the right hand upward about 4 inches and then thrusting the arm forward shoulder high and horizontal to the marching surface forming an approximate 45-degree angle. When the Colors salute with troops who execute Present Arms from the Order, the Color bearers assume the position of Carry at the command ARMS and then execute the Color Salute (Figure 15-9). When casing or uncasing Colors indoors (at the Order), the organizational Color bearer salutes (dips) by slipping his right hand upward and grasping the staff firmly, with the forearm horizontal and the staff thrust forward until the arm is fully extended.

Chapter 16

SALUTE BATTERY

Ceremonies did not originally use field artillery as a salute battery. In the 19th century, branches of service were lined up from right to left: infantry, field artillery, and cavalry, respectively. Field artillery lined up their guns but did not fire them. When honors began to be fired in ceremonies, the guns were moved out of the formation to avoid injury to other elements of the formation.

The salute battery should arrive at the ceremonial site early enough to position their pieces before the arrival of units on the ready line.

a. The pieces are positioned downwind from the ceremony site with the muzzles pointing away from the reviewing stand. When possible, the opened trails are two steps to the rear of the final line and the number six piece is positioned twelve steps from the left flank unit. Other pieces are positioned about four steps apart (measure from inside wheels) and on line with number six.

b. Once the pieces are in position, the battery is formed to the left of the number one piece and in front of the line so that the number six and three sections are on the final line (Figure 16-1).

16-2. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS AND INDIVIDUAL ACTIONS

The sequence of events and individual actions necessary to conduct a salute battery are described herein.

a. Formation of Troops. On hearing the band sound Attention, the battery commander faces about, commands Battery, ATTENTION, and again faces about.

(1) On completion of the adjutant's call, the battery commander faces about and commands Right, FACE. He then commands Section, POST.

(2) The section chiefs in reverse sequence (6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1) command Forward, MARCH or Column Half Right, MARCH. The sections march forward along the final line and halt when centered on the piece.

(3) The battery commander faces to the left and commands (himself and his staff) Column Half Right, MARCH. They march forward (inclining as necessary) so that when halted the battery commander is six steps from and centered on the firing battery. The section chief and the counter should be centered and three steps to the rear of the commander. The executive officer is on line with the guidon bearer.

(4) When the battery commander has halted his staff, he faces to the right and commands Left, FACE. Then he commands Dress right, DRESS; Ready, FRONT; and Parade, REST (for large reviews, the command AT EASE may be substituted for Parade, REST). The commander then faces about and executes Parade Rest.

b. Presentation of Honors. When the commander of troops has directed Order Arms (adjutant has taken his post), the battery commander faces about and commands Order, ARMS. He then directs FIRE THE SALUTE and faces about.

(1) The battery commander quietly commands (himself and the guidon bearer) Present, ARMS and Order, ARMS, as appropriate.

(2) The executive officer, counter, and chief of the firing battery face about. The executive officer commands Cannoneers, POST. The cannoneers immediately move to their firing positions.

(3) The executive officer commands With blank ammunition (pause), LOAD. He then commands STAND BY, NUMBER ONE. As each piece is ready to fire, the section chief raises his arm (nearest the executive officer) and looks at the executive officer.

(4) When all section chiefs have indicated they are ready (arm raised), the executive officer raises his right arm and looks at the commander of troops. The commander of troops takes the raised arm as the signal that the battery is ready to fire. He then faces about and commands (himself and his staff) Present, ARMS.

(5) As the commander's hand touches his headgear, the executive officer signals the first piece to fire. The executive officer drops his arm to a horizontal position and then raises it back to a vertical position for each round. Rounds are fired at three-second intervals for normal honors and five-second intervals for funerals (AR 600-25).

(6) During the Salute, as the second to last round is fired, the counter faces about and announces ELEVEN. As the next to last round is fired, the chief of the firing battery Faces About and announces TWELVE. This is the signal for the executive officer to fire one more round.

(7) During the firing, each section immediately reloads after each round is fired and is prepared to fire in case of a misfire. When the last round has been fired, the executive officer signals CEASE FIRE and then signals UNLOAD.

(8) When all pieces are unloaded and the cannoneers are at Attention, the executive officer commands to the rear of the piece, FALL IN (cannoneers automatically fall in at Dress Right); he then commands Ready, FRONT and Parade, REST. When all sections are back in position on the final line, the executive officer faces about.

c. Inspection. As the reviewing party approaches piece number six, the battery commander faces about and commands Battery, ATTENTION. He then faces to the front and (over his right shoulder) commands Eyes, RIGHT.

(1) The battery commander and executive officer execute Eyes Right and Salute. The guidon bearer executes Eyes Right and Present Guidon. All others execute Eyes Right and follow the reviewing officer, turning the head until facing to the front.

(2) When the reviewing party has passed the last piece, the battery commander commands Order, ARMS for himself, the executive officer, and the guidon bearer. He then faces about. When the reviewing party has cleared the right rear of his unit, he then commands Parade, REST, faces about, and assumes Parade Rest.

d. Honors to the Nation. The battery executes appropriate movements on command or directives by the commander of troops.

e. Remarks. The battery executes appropriate movements on command or directives by the commander of troops.

f. March in Review. On the command or directive to PASS IN REVIEW, the battery commander faces about and commands Parade, REST. He then faces about and assumes Parade Rest.

g. Conclusion. When the band begins the eight-bar drum beat (before “The Army Goes Rolling Along”), the battery commander faces about and commands Battery, ATTENTION. He then faces about. When the band has finished playing the music, the battery commander faces about and commands REST.

Chapter 17

CIVILIAN PARTICIPATION IN MILITARY CEREMONIES

This chapter serves as a guide for commanders in planning and conducting military ceremonies with civilian participation.

17-1. HISTORY

Since its inception at the beginning of the American Revolution, the U.S. Army has always seen the importance of civilian control of the military and participation of civilians in military activities. As a result, military ceremonies are frequently held to honor civilians.

17-2. TYPES OF CEREMONIES

Civilians may participate in three general categories of military ceremonies:

- Presenting awards.
- Receiving awards.
- Being honored.

a. Civilians Presenting Awards. This category includes occasions when an award is made to another civilian and occasions when awards are presented to military personnel by a civilian. These ceremonies are conducted as previously outlined with the following exceptions:

- (1) The host or reviewing officer is accompanied to the reviewing stand by the civilian. The reviewing officer may relinquish the place of honor to the civilian.
- (2) The reviewing officer accompanies the civilian throughout the sequence of events.
- (3) Because of lack of familiarity with military ceremonies, it may be necessary to brief the civilian before and during the conduct of the ceremony.

b. Civilians Receiving Awards. Conduct of these ceremonies should be guided by paragraph 10-4 with the following exceptions:

- (1) Civilians should be initially positioned to the left of the reviewing stand and not marched forward with the military personnel, if any, to receive awards.
- (2) When the Colors are brought forward, civilians move to a position five steps in front of and centered on the Colors. When military and civilians receive an award at the same time, they are aligned from right to left with the highest award on the right.
- (3) When the awardees are posted, they remain in the same order. If there are no military awardees, the civilians move to the left of the reviewing stand.
- (4) When this ceremony is conducted for presenting posthumous awards, other types of awards are not incorporated. A carefully selected escort officer should accompany relatives of persons receiving posthumous awards.

NOTE: If there is only one awardee, he may be the reviewing official.

c. Reviews in Honor of Civilians. Government employees, private citizens, and local, state, national, or foreign officials may be honored by a review. (Consult AR 600-25 for special honors due certain officials.) Other civilians may be honored, as noted above, by participating in the place of or with the reviewing officer.

Appendix A

SALUTING

The origin of the Hand Salute is uncertain. Some historians believe it began in late Roman times when assassinations were common. A citizen who wanted to see a public official had to approach with his right hand raised to show that he did not hold a weapon. Knights in armor raised visors with the right hand when meeting a comrade. This practice gradually became a way of showing respect and, in early American history, sometimes involved removing the hat. By 1820, the motion was modified to touching the hat, and since then it has become the Hand Salute used today.

A-1. WHEN TO SALUTE

Army personnel in uniform are required to salute when they meet and recognize persons entitled (by grade) to a salute except when it is inappropriate or impractical (in public conveyances such as planes and buses, in public places such as inside theaters, or when driving a vehicle).

- a. A salute is also rendered—
 - When the United States National Anthem, “To the Color,” “Hail to the Chief,” or foreign national anthems are played.
 - To uncased National Color outdoors.
 - On ceremonial occasions as prescribed in Part Two, Ceremonies.
 - At reveille and retreat ceremonies, during the raising or lowering of the flag.
 - During the sounding of honors.
 - When the Pledge of Allegiance to the U.S. flag is being recited outdoors.
 - When turning over control of formations.
 - When rendering reports.
 - To officers of friendly foreign countries.
- b. Salutes are not required when—
 - Indoors, except when reporting to an officer or when on duty as a guard.
 - Addressing a prisoner.
 - Saluting is obviously inappropriate. In these cases, only greetings are exchanged. (Example 1: A person carrying articles with both hands, or being otherwise so occupied as to make saluting impracticable, is not required to salute a senior person or return the salute to a subordinate.)
 - Either the senior or the subordinate is wearing civilian clothes.
- c. In any case not covered by specific instructions, the salute is rendered.

A-2. REPORTING INDOORS

When reporting to an officer in his office, the Soldier removes his headgear, knocks, and enters when told to do so. He approaches within two steps of the officer’s desk, halts, salutes, and reports, "Sir (Ma’am), Private Jones reports." The salute is held until the report is completed and the salute has been returned by the officer. When the business is completed,

Appendix H

MANUAL OF THE GUIDON

The guidon is a company, battery, or troop identification flag. It is present at all unit formations unless otherwise directed by the commander.

When armed with a rifle, the guidon bearer slings the weapon behind his back with the sling diagonally across his chest and the muzzle end up and to the right.

H-1. BASIC GUIDON POSITIONS

This paragraph describes basic guidon positions and how to assume them.

a. When the unit is formed, the guidon bearer is one step in front of and two 15-inch left steps to the right of and facing the person forming the unit (the person forming the unit is facing the unit.) If the first sergeant forms the unit, the guidon bearer steps forward three steps on the command POST.

b. To face with the guidon, raise the ferrule 1 inch off the marching surface by bending the right elbow slightly. After executing the movement, automatically lower the ferrule to the Order position. Keep the staff vertical throughout the movement.

c. Execute facing movements, marching movements, Present Arms (Present Guidon), and Rest movements with the unit. During manual of arms movements, remain at Order Guidon except for Present Arms (Figure H-1, page H-2).

d. When in a line formation and the company is faced to the right for a marching movement, face to the right in marching, assume the Double-Time position (Figure H-7, page H-8) and double-time from that position to a position five steps forward of and centered on the squad leaders of the first platoon. If the company commander joins the formation at the head of the column (six steps in front of and centered on the squad leaders), execute two left steps.

e. If a platoon is authorized a guidon or phase banner (in training units for example), the bearer's post is one step in front of and two 15-inch steps to the right of and facing the person forming the platoon. When the formation is faced to the right for a marching movement, the bearer executes in the same manner as explained above, except that his post is three steps in front of and centered on the squad leaders. If the platoon leader is present and at his post, the bearer's post is one step to the rear and two 15-inch steps to the left of the platoon leader.

f. When the guidon bearer is marching at his post in a column formation during a Column Left (Right), he executes a Column Half Left (Right) on the command of execution and inclines as necessary to maintain his post.

NOTE: Execute raised guidon only on the preparatory commands for Present, ARMS; Eyes, RIGHT; and on the preparatory command Order of Order, ARMS following the execution of Present Arms and Eyes Right. Also execute Raised Guidon on the preparatory command Ready of Ready, FRONT.

H-2. ORDER GUIDON

At Order Guidon (Position of Attention), keep the ferrule on the marching surface and touching the outside of the right foot, opposite the ball of the right foot. Hold the staff in the right hand in the “U” formed by the fingers (extended and joined pointing downward) and thumb. Keep the right hand and arm behind the staff. Rest the staff against the hollow of the shoulder (Figure H-1).

H-3. REST POSITIONS

To assume Rest positions, execute the following actions.

- a. On the preparatory command Parade, slide the right hand up the staff until the forearm is horizontal and grasp the staff (1, Figure H-2). On the command of execution REST, thrust the staff straight forward keeping the ferrule on the marching surface until the arm is fully extended, and at the same time, execute Parade Rest as in individual drill (2, Figure H-2).

b. Stand At Ease is the same as Parade Rest, except that the eyes and head are turned toward the commander.

c. Execute At Ease and Rest with the guidon from the Order Guidon position.

H-4. CARRY GUIDON

To assume the position of Carry Guidon, execute the following actions.

a. On the preparatory command for marching movements, execute Carry Guidon from Order Guidon by reaching across the body with the left hand (forearm horizontal) and grasping the staff (1, Figure H-3). Raise the staff vertically 6 inches allowing the staff to slide through the right hand. While the staff is sliding through the right hand, release the grasp and regrasp the staff with right thumb to the front, pointed downward and on line with the seam of the trousers. On the command of execution MARCH, return the left hand smartly to the left side and simultaneously step off (2, Figure H-3).

b. To resume Order Guidon from Carry Guidon, reach across the body with the left hand (forearm horizontal) and grasp the staff. Let the staff slide through the hands until the ferrule touches the marching surface. Regrasp the staff in the same manner as in Order Guidon and then return the left hand sharply to the side as in the position of attention.

c. When double-timing, carry the guidon diagonally across the body in the same manner as Port Arms.

H-5. RAISED GUIDON

On the preparatory command Present of Present, ARMS and Eyes of Eyes, RIGHT, raise the guidon vertically, by grasping the staff with the right hand. Raise the guidon with the right hand while simultaneously moving the left hand (with palm to the rear) across the body to guide the guidon (1, Figure H -4). Keep raising the guidon until the right hand is on line with the right shoulder. Keep the right elbow into the side. Hold the guidon in this position until the command of execution is given (2, Figure H-4).

NOTE: When executing Raised Guidon from Carry Guidon, the bearer changes his grip to the Order Guidon position when he grasps the staff with his left hand. He then executes Raised Guidon as previously described. The bearer returns to Carry Guidon from Raised Guidon as described in paragraph H-4.

H-6. PRESENT GUIDON

To assume this position, execute the following actions.

a. On the preparatory commands for Present, ARMS and Eyes, RIGHT, execute Raised Guidon. On the command of execution, lower the guidon to the front using the right hand, keeping the left hand in the same position as Raised Guidon until the guidon is in the horizontal position resting under the arm pit. As soon as the staff is horizontal, return the left hand sharply to the left side (Figure H-5).

b. During a review, execute Eyes Right as the guidon is presented on the command of execution RIGHT. Move the head and eyes to the front as the guidon is raised on the command Ready of Ready, FRONT.

c. On the command Order of Order, ARMS or Ready of Ready, FRONT, regrasp the staff with the left hand at its original position and execute Raised Guidon. On the command of execution ARMS or FRONT, lower the guidon back to the carry or order position.

H-7. GUIDON BEARER'S SALUTE

When the guidon bearer (not in formation) has to salute from the order or carry position, the Salute is given with the left hand. To achieve this position, execute the following actions.

- a. Move the left hand sharply to a position so that the first joint of the forefinger is touching the staff. The fingers and thumb are extended and joined, palm down, wrist straight, and forearm horizontal (Figure H-6).

- b. After the Salute is acknowledged, return the left hand sharply to the side.
- c. When at Double Time (not in formation), return to Quick Time, returning the guidon to the carry position and render the guidon Salute as previously described. Upon completing the Salute return to the carry position and resume Double Time (Figure H-7).

Appendix J

MOUNTED DRILL

This appendix contains the procedures for the orderly formation and movement of vehicles during drill and ceremonies for motorized and mechanized units. When necessary, the procedures may be modified to conform to local conditions.

J-1. GENERAL

Motorized and mechanized units, when dismounted, conduct drill and ceremonies in the same manner as prescribed for infantry units.

a. When mounted in vehicles, visible troops sit at Attention. Those armed with a rifle place the butt of the weapon alongside the right foot in the same manner as Order Arms, with the weapon vertical and parallel to the calf of the leg. Grasp the weapon with the right hand so that the right forearm is horizontal. Visible troops not armed with a rifle, fold their arms (right over the left) and raise the elbows so that the upper arms are horizontal.

b. When marching units and motorized and or mechanized units take part in the same ceremony, the units form dismounted (in a formation corresponding to the marching units) with their vehicles to the rear. On the directive PASS IN REVIEW, the commander faces about and directs at your vehicles, FALL IN or MOUNT (LOAD) YOUR VEHICLES. Subordinate commanders and leaders, in sequence from right to left, command At your vehicles, FALL IN (MOUNT YOUR VEHICLES) and all vehicle members double time to their vehicle. On the signal to mount, they mount their vehicle. Drivers observe their commander or leader for the signal to start engines.

J-2. FORMATIONS

The formations for motorized and mechanized units are basically the same as for infantry units. The interval between vehicles is about five steps. The distance is about 10 steps between vehicles one behind the other. Mass formations may be used for ceremonies or instruction by companies or larger units.

a. Column. In this formation, the vehicles are placed one behind the other, and the right edges of the vehicles are aligned.

b. Line. In this formation, vehicles are abreast, and the front edges of the vehicles are aligned.

c. Mass. A unit formed with two or more columns abreast constitutes a mass. Masses may be grouped as follows:

- LINE OF MASSES. Masses abreast with ten-step intervals (Figure J-1, page J-2).
- COLUMN OF MASSES. Masses placed one behind another with ten-step intervals between companies (Figure J-2, page J-3).
- LINE OF BATTALIONS IN LINE OF MASSES. Battalions in line of masses abreast with 20-step intervals between battalions.
- LINE OF BATTALIONS IN COLUMN OF MASSES. Battalions in column of masses abreast with 20-step intervals between battalions.

- COLUMN OF BATTALIONS IN LINE OF MASSES. Battalions in line of masses, placed one behind another, with 20-step intervals between battalions.
- COLUMN OF BATTALIONS IN COLUMNS OF MASSES. Battalions in column of masses, placed one behind another, with 20-step intervals between battalions.

J-3. FORMATION AT VEHICLES

Personnel form at the vehicles before mounting using the following procedures.

- a. To form at the vehicles from any formation, the command is At your vehicles, FALL IN. At the command FALL IN, the men move (double time) to their assigned vehicles and form as shown in Figure J-3 (page J-4). When there are more than five men, they form two or three ranks with normal distance. When there are more than 15 men, the number of men per rank may be increased. (Artillery sections form as prescribed in service-of-the-piece manuals.)

b. To load, the command is Load, VEHICLES. On the command of execution VEHICLES, each man double-times and forms at his vehicle (as previously described).

J-4. MOVEMENT OF VEHICLES

Execute the following actions to move vehicles.

a. To move forward, the commander gives the warning signal FORWARD, and his vehicle moves out. The other vehicles move forward at the designated distance. They are aligned on the base vehicle (right).

b. To halt, the commander signals HALT. The driver then slows down and halts the commander's vehicle. The other vehicles close to the prescribed distance and halt.

c. To change the direction of travel of mass formation, the commander gives the appropriate signal. On the commander's signal, the base vehicle turns 90 degrees and slows. Other vehicles turn about 45 degrees and continue traveling in an arc at normal speed until on line with the base vehicle. As the vehicles form on line, the base vehicle accelerates as necessary to maintain correct distance on the commander.

d. To change a line formation to a column formation, the commander signals for a column. The base vehicle, and those directly behind it, move forward. Other vehicles move at a 45-degree angle until in line with the lead vehicle and then execute a 45-degree turn.

e. To change a column formation to a line formation, the commander signals a line formation. The base (right flank vehicle) stops and all other vehicles turn at a 45-degree angle, turn again at a 45-degree angle when the prescribed interval is obtained, and then halt when on line with the base vehicle.

J-5. MOUNTED REVIEWS

Motorized and mechanized units conduct ceremonies as close as possible to the procedures prescribed for other units. They may participate (exactly as prescribed for marching units) as a dismounted unit, and on the directive PASS IN REVIEW, mount their vehicles and pass in review mounted. When desired, motorized and mechanized units may position their vehicles in a prescribed formation and remain mounted throughout the ceremony.

Appendix K

FLAGS AND COLORS

Normally, a flag detail consists of one noncommissioned officer in charge (NCOIC), two halyard pullers, and two to eight flag handlers. The purpose of the flag handlers is to ensure correct folding (unfolding) of the flag and to ensure that the flag does not touch the ground. As a guide, two flag handlers are needed when raising or lowering the storm (small) flag, six handlers for the post (medium) flag, and eight handlers for the garrison (large) flag.

The members of the flag detail are equipped according to local standing operating procedure and or letter of instructions.

The NCOIC inconspicuously gives the necessary commands or directives to ensure proper performance by the flag detail. On windy days, he may assist the flag handlers to secure or fold the flag. In most other situations, it is inappropriate for the NCOIC to touch the flag when it is being folded or unfolded.

- NOTES:
1. For occasions when the flag of the United States is raised, lowered, or flown at half-staff, see AR 600-25 and paragraphs K-1 and K-2.
 2. When the flag is to be flown at half-staff, it is first hoisted to the top of the flagpole and then lowered to the half-staff position. Before lowering the flag, it is again raised to the top of the flagpole and then lowered (AR 840-10).

K-1. RAISING THE FLAG (REVEILLE)

Execute the following actions when raising the flag.

a. The NCOIC forms the detail in a column of twos at Double Interval between files (Figure K-1, page K-2). He secures the flag from its storage area and positions himself between the files and on line with the last two men. He then marches the detail to the flagpole.

b. The detail is halted in column, facing the flagpole on the downwind side or as appropriate. They are halted so that the flagpole is centered between the halyard pullers. The NCOIC commands POST. On this command, the halyard pullers immediately move to the flagpole and ensure that the halyards are free of the pole. The flag handlers face to the center. The NCOIC then directs UNFOLD THE FLAG. On this directive, the two flag handlers nearest the NCOIC begin to (carefully) unfold the flag lengthwise, passing the freed end to the other handlers. When the two handlers nearest the flagpole have firmly secured the flag, the other handlers move away from the flagpole (as necessary) until the flag is fully extended. The flag is not unfolded widthwise. The flag handlers hold the flag waist high with their forearms horizontal to the ground.

c. At the appropriate time, the NCOIC directs ATTACH THE FLAG. On this directive, all flag handlers take one side step toward the flagpole. The two handlers nearest the flagpole immediately attach the top of the flag to the halyard. The halyard pullers raise the flag until the bottom of the flag can be attached.

NOTE: When raising the larger flags, the NCOIC may command Ready, STEP while the halyard pullers raise the halyard until the lower portion of the flag is attached.

d. At the first note of the music, the reveille gun is fired and the halyard pullers rapidly raise the flag. The NCOIC salutes. As the flag is raised from the handlers' hands, they face the flagpole and salute. (Reveille is about 20 seconds in duration.) At the last note of the music, the NCOIC commands Order, ARMS for himself and the flag handlers while the pullers secure the halyards. The NCOIC then positions himself between the halyard pullers, executes an About Face, and commands Ready, FACE. The detail will face in the appropriate direction to depart the flag pole. He then marches the detail from the site.

K-2. LOWERING THE FLAG (RETREAT)

a. The detail is marched and positioned at the flagpole in the same manner as when raising the flag. On the command POST, the halyard pullers free the halyards, untangle them, ensure that they are free from the pole, and then temporarily resecure them; the flag handlers do not face to the center. The NCOIC then commands Parade, REST.

b. At the cannon shot or at the last note of "Retreat" (if a cannon is not fired), each halyard puller immediately frees the halyards. The NCOIC commands himself and the flag handlers to ATTENTION and Present, ARMS. At the first note of "To the Color," the flag is lowered slowly and with dignity.

c. The call, "To the Color," is approximately 40 seconds in duration. As the flag is lowered to within reach, the two flag handlers farthest away from the flag terminate their Salute, move forward rapidly, secure the flag, and move back from the flagpole between the columns.

(1) As the flag passes each handler, he terminates his Salute and assists in securing the flag. The flag is held palms down, fingers and thumb extended and joined, forearms horizontal. The NCOIC terminates his Salute at the last note of the music.

(2) Once the flag is detached, it is then folded. (See Figure K-2, page K-4, for correct folding techniques.) After securing the halyard, the handlers assist in the folding.

NOTE: When taking steps forward or backward to fold the flag, the members of the detail always step off with the left foot and always bring the trail foot alongside the lead foot as in the Position of Attention.

(a) To fold the flag the NCOIC commands Ready, STEP. All personnel take the appropriate number of steps backward to ensure that the flag is horizontal, wrinkle free, and centered on the flagpole.

(b) The NCOIC then commands Ready, STEP. The flag handlers take the appropriate number of steps toward each other, making the first fold lengthwise. The members on the NCOIC's right ensure that their edge of the flag is overlapping the left side by about inch, which prevents any red from showing when the folding is complete. The NCOIC ensures that the flag is straight.

(c) The NCOIC then commands Ready, TWO. The members of the column on the NCOIC's left reach down and secure the fold with the fingers pointing upward and the palms facing away.

(d) The NCOIC then commands Ready, THREE. The members take the appropriate number of steps backward to ensure that the flag is horizontal, wrinkle free, and centered on the flagpole.

(e) Ready, STEP, Ready, TWO, and Ready, THREE are commanded and executed one more time to get the flag completely folded lengthwise.

(f) The flag handlers nearest the NCOIC then fold a 4-inch cuff and begin folding the flag, starting with the corner on the NCOIC's left. When folding the flag, the handlers are careful to keep the edges straight and to not bend the flag.

(g) After the flag has reached the position of honor (at the head of the right column), the NCOIC marches by the most direct route to a position directly in front of the flag handler and inspects the flag. The NCOIC then receives the flag and carries it held against his chest with his forearms with the point up.

(h) After the flag has been folded and received by the NCOIC, he positions himself between the halyard pullers and faces the storage site. The NCOIC then commands Ready, FACE. The members of the detail make the appropriate Facing movement toward the storage site. The detail is then marched to the storage site.

NOTE: Once the flag has been folded (cocked hat), it is treated as a cased Color and not saluted by persons meeting the flag detail. The flag will be treated with the utmost dignity and respect but not be rendered any sort of honors.

Figure K-2. Correct method of folding United States flag

K-3. DISPLAY

The flag of the United States represents the living country and is considered a living thing.

- a. Rules and customs for displaying the U.S. flag, adopted by an act of Congress in 1942 and amended in 1976, are found in Title 36 of the United States Code.

NOTE: No other flag or pennant should be placed above or, if on the same level, to the right of the flag of the United States of America except during church services conducted by naval chaplains at sea, when the church pennant may be flown above the flag, and except as required by multinational agreements to which the United States is a signatory.

b. The union, the field of blue with the grouping of stars representing the individual states, is the honor point and is the flag's right. When the flag is displayed, the union is always to the top and to the flag's own right (the left of the observer). When carried, the flag is always free, never stretched flat or carried horizontally. In the company of other flags, the U.S. flag is always on the marching right (the flag's own right), or, if there is a line of other flags, in front of the center of that line. When a number of flags of states, or localities, or pennants of societies are grouped and displayed from staffs, the U.S. flag is in the center and at the highest point of the group. If all flags are displayed from staffs of the same height, the flag of the United States is placed in the honor position, to the right of the other flags (to the left of the observer). When flags of two or more nations are displayed, they are flown from separate staffs of the same height, they are of approximately equal size, and the U.S. flag is to the right of the others.

NOTE: When the U.S. flag is flown in conjunction with other national flags, care must be taken to ensure that the foreign national flag is correct and properly displayed.

c. The flag of the United States is never used as drapery. It is displayed hung flat against a wall or flown free from a staff. It is not festooned over doorways or arches, tied in a bow, or fashioned into a rosette. It is not used to cover a speaker's desk or draped over the front of a platform. For those purposes, bunting may be used, giving the blue of the bunting the place of honor at the top of the arrangement or in the center of the rosette. Traditionally, there is one permissible departure from the rules for display of the flag of the United States: in a dire emergency, the flag may be flown upside down as a distress signal.

NOTE: For a detailed explanation of the regulations concerning the flag of the United States and other flags and Colors, see ARs 840-10 and 600-25.

K-4. CLASSIFICATION

a. U.S. flags used by the Army are classified by size as follows:

(1) Garrison Flag. The garrison flag is 20 feet hoist by 38 feet fly of nylon wool and is displayed on holidays and important occasions.

(2) Post Flag. The post flag is 8 feet 11 3/8-inch hoist by 17 feet fly of nylon and is used for general display, and flown daily.

(3) Field Flag. The field flag is 6 feet 8 inches hoist by 12 feet fly of nylon wool and is used for display with the positional field flag.

(4) Storm Flag. The storm flag is 5 feet hoist by 9 feet 6 inches fly of nylon and is flown during inclement weather.

(5) Interment Flag. The interment flag is 5 feet hoist by 9 feet 6 inches fly of cotton bunting.

b. A Color is the U.S. flag trimmed on three sides with golden yellow fringe 2 1/2 inches wide. The Color is primarily for indoor display. U.S. Colors used by the Army are classified by size as follows:

- 4 feet, 4 inches hoist by 5 feet, 6 inches fly displayed with the U.S. Army flag, positional Colors, the Corps of Cadets Colors, 1st Battalion 3rd Infantry Colors, and the chapel flag.
- 3 feet hoist by 4 feet fly displayed with the Army field flag, distinguishing flags, organizational Colors, institutional flags, and the chapel flag.

c. Other types of military flags include:

(1) Colors. These are flags of organizations and certain civilian and military officials.

(2) Standards. Flags of mounted units were formerly called standards.

(3) Distinguished Flags. These flags identify headquarters, offices, general officers, and organizations, none of which is authorized organizational or individual Colors.

(4) Ensign. An ensign is a rectangular flag flown from aircraft, ships, and boats.

(5) Guidon. A guidon is a swallow-tailed flag carried by companies, batteries, troops, and certain detachments.

(6) Pennant. A pennant is a triangular flag used for various utility purposes.

d. Dismounted organizations traditionally carried the Color while mounted organizations (cavalry, mechanized, and motorized) traditionally carried the standard. Colors were larger than standards. Under present regulations, both are called Colors.

e. The organizational Color is dipped in Salute during the playing of the United States National Anthem, "To the Color," "Taps" (funerals only), and during the ceremony at reveille. It is dipped in Salute when rendering honors to the organization's commander or to a person of higher grade, but at no other time. The U.S. flag is never dipped in Salute.

f. Until 1813, the Colors of an infantry regiment were carried by ensigns, who were the lowest ranking officers of the regiment. In that year, the regulations were changed and the work was entrusted to Color sergeants. Noncommissioned officers carry them today.

K-5. ARMY FLAGS

The United States Army flag is 4 feet, 4 inches hoist by 5 feet, 6 inches fly and is trimmed on three sides with yellow fringe 2 1/2 inches in width. On Flag Day, 14 June 1956, the 181st anniversary of the U.S. Army, the newly adopted United States Army flag was publicly unfurled at Independence Hall, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, by the Honorable Wilbur M. Brucker, Secretary of the Army. The flag, of white silk, bears an embroidered replica of the official seal of the Department of the Army in ultramarine blue (without the roman numerals). A scarlet scroll inscribed "United States Army" in white is centered between the device and the ultramarine blue numerals "1775" denoting the year the Army was founded, by action of the Continental Congress, 14 June 1775. The original War Office seal, constituting the central design of the flag, was authorized by the Continental Congress on 8 May 1779. The U.S. Army flag bears all the streamers representing the Army's campaigns since its inception. (When not being carried, the Yorktown streamer should always be prominently displayed.) The Army field flag was authorized in 1962 and is the same as the United States Army flag except that it is 3 feet hoist by 4 feet fly, the background is ultramarine blue, the seal is white, the scroll is white, "United States Army" is scarlet, the numerals "1775" are white, and streamers are not authorized. The flag is issued to those organizations and headquarters not authorized the United States Army flag. (Units authorized issue are specified in AR 840-10.)

Hold that position until last note of music or last round of Salute has been fired.	Each time casket is moved: if outdoors, stand at Attention with right hand over heart; if outdoors, stand at Attention .

Definitions

alignment	The arrangement of several elements on the same line

cadence	The uniform rhythm in which a movement is executed, or the number of steps or counts per minute at which a movement is executed. Drill movements are normally executed at the cadence of quick time or double time. Quick time is the cadence of 120 counts or steps per minute; double time is the cadence of 180 counts or steps per minute.
ceremonies	Formations and movements in which a number of troops execute movements in unison and with precision just as in drill; however, their primary value is to render honors, preserve tradition, and stimulate esprit de corps.
commander	Person in charge.

directive	An oral order given by a commander to direct or cause a subordinate leader or lead element to take action.
distance	The space between elements when the elements are one behind the other. drill	Certain movements by which a unit (or individuals) is moved in a uniform manner from one formation to another, or from one place to another. Movements are executed in unison and with precision.
element	An individual, squad, section, platoon, company, or larger unit forming as part of the next higher unit.

flank	The right or left side of any formation as observed by an element within that formation.

line	A formation in which the elements are side by side or abreast of each other. In a platoon line, the members of each squad are abreast of each other with the squads one behind the other.
column	A formation in which the elements are one behind the other. In a platoon column, the members of each squad are one behind the other, with the squads abreast of each other. To change a line formation to a column formation, the command is Right, FACE . To change a column formation to a line formation, the command is Left, FACE .

head	The leading element of a column.
close	The lateral space between Soldiers, measured from right to left by the Soldier on the right placing the heel of his left hand on his hip, even with the top of the belt line, fingers and thumb joined and extended downward, with his elbow in line with the body and touching the arm of the Soldier to his left.
normal	The lateral space between Soldiers, measured from right to left by the Soldier on the right holding his left arm shoulder high, fingers and thumb extended and joined, with the tip of his middle finger touching the right shoulder of the Soldier to his left.
PICAA	Five-step process used in all marching movements: P-preparatory command, I-intermediate step, C-command of execution, A-action step, and A-additional step.
post	The correct place for an officer or noncommissioned officer to stand in a prescribed formation.

TC 3-21.5 (FM 3-21.5)
20 January 2012

By Order of the Secretary of the Army:

Official:

JOYCE E. MORROW
Administrative Assistant to the Secretary of the Army
1135001

RAYMOND T. ODIERNO
General, United States Army Chief of Staff

DISTRIBUTION:

Active Army, Army National Guard, and United States Army Reserve: Not to be distributed; electronic media only.

the Soldier salutes, holds the salute until it has been returned, executes the appropriate facing movement, and departs. When reporting indoors under arms, the procedure is the same except that the headgear is not removed and the Soldier renders the salute prescribed for the weapon with which he is armed.

- NOTES:
1. The expression “under arms” means carrying a weapon in your hands by a sling or holster.
 2. When reporting to a noncommissioned officer, the procedures are the same, except no salutes are exchanged.

A-3. REPORTING OUTDOORS

When reporting outdoors, the Soldier moves rapidly toward the officer, halts approximately three steps from the officer, salutes, and reports (as when indoors). When the Soldier is dismissed by the officer, salutes are again exchanged. If under arms, the Soldier carries the weapon in the manner prescribed for saluting.

A-4. SALUTING PERSONS IN VEHICLES

The practice of saluting officers in official vehicles (recognized individually by grade or identifying vehicle plates and or flags) is considered an appropriate courtesy. Salutes are not required to be rendered by or to personnel who are driving or riding in privately owned vehicles except by gate guards, who render salutes to recognized officers in all vehicles unless their duties make the salute impractical. When military personnel are drivers of a moving vehicle, they do not initiate a salute (AR 600-25).

A-5. OTHER SALUTES

a. In Formation. Individuals in formation do not salute or return salutes except at the command Present, ARMS. The individual in charge salutes and acknowledges salutes for the entire formation. Commanders of organizations or detachments that are not a part of a larger formation salute officers of higher grade by bringing the organization or detachment to attention before saluting. When in the field under battle or simulated battle conditions, the organization or detachment is not brought to attention. An individual in formation at ease or at rest comes to attention when addressed by an officer. (Refer to paragraph 3-5f, for more information on the hand salute).

b. Not in Formation. On the approach of an officer, a group of individuals not in formation is called to Attention by the first person noticing the officer, and all come sharply to Attention and salute. This action is to be taken at approximately 6 paces away from the officer, or the closest point of approach. Individuals participating in games, and members of work details, do not salute. The individual in charge of a work detail, if not actively engaged, salutes and acknowledges Salutes for the entire detail. A unit resting alongside a road does not come to Attention upon the approach of an officer; however, if the officer addresses an individual (or group), the individual (or group) comes to Attention and remains at Attention (unless otherwise ordered) until the termination of the conversation, at which time the individual (or group) salutes the officer.

c. Outdoors. Whenever and wherever the United States National Anthem, “To the Color,” “Reveille,” or “Hail to the Chief” is played, at the first note, all dismounted personnel in uniform and not in formation face the flag (or the music, if the flag is not in view), stand at Attention, and render the prescribed Salute. The position of Salute is held until the last note of the music is sounded. Military personnel not in uniform will stand at Attention (remove headdress, if any, with the right hand), and place the right hand over the heart. Vehicles in motion are brought to a Halt. Persons riding in a passenger car or on a motorcycle dismount and salute. Occupants of other types of military vehicles and buses remain in the vehicle and sit at attention; the individual in charge of each vehicle dismounts and renders the Hand Salute. Tank and armored car commanders salute from the vehicle.

d. Indoors. When the National Anthem is played indoors, officers and enlisted personnel stand at Attention and face the music, or the flag if one is present.

NOTE: Narrators or printed programs can help inform spectators of appropriate responses.

A-6. SALUTING COLORS

National and organizational flags, which are mounted on flagstaves equipped with finials, are called Colors. Military personnel passing an uncased National Color salute at six steps distance and hold the Salute until they have passed six steps beyond it. Similarly, when the uncased Color passes by, they salute when it is six steps away and hold the Salute until it has passed six steps beyond them.

NOTE: Small flags carried by individuals, such as those carried by civilian spectators at a parade, are not saluted. It is improper to salute with any object in the right hand or with a cigarette, cigar, or pipe in the mouth.

A-7. UNCOVERING

Officers and enlisted men under arms uncover only when—

- Seated as a member of (or in attendance on) a court or board.
- Entering places of divine worship.
- In attendance at an official reception.

Personnel remove their headdress indoors. When outdoors, military headdress is never removed, or raised as a form of salutation. When appropriate, civilians may be saluted in lieu of removing the headdress.

A-8. SALUTING UPON BOARDING NAVAL SHIPS

When Army personnel board U.S. Navy ships, either as an individual or as a unit leader, they salute according to naval procedures.

a. When boarding a naval ship, upon reaching the top of the gangway, face and salute the national ensign. After completing this salute, salute the officer of the deck who will be standing on the quarter deck at the head of the gangway. When saluting the officer of the deck, request permission to board, "Sir, Request permission to come aboard." The officer of the deck will return the salute.

b. When leaving the ship, render the same salutes in reverse order, and request permission to leave, "Sir, Request permission to go ashore."

Appendix B

MANUAL OF ARMS—M4-SERIES CARBINE

The manual of arms movements for the M4-series carbine (Figure B-1) are nearly the same as those for the M16-series rifle. For ease of understanding, the movements are fully explained. The same rules that apply to the M16-series rifle apply to the M4-series carbine. Only conduct drills with the M4-series carbine with the standard handguards with the stock fully extended.

B-1. ORDER ARMS

joined with the thumb on the toe of the butt. Hold the carbine vertical with the magazine well to the front with the trailing edge of the right hand on line with the seam of the trousers.

B-2. REST POSITIONS

Command and execute the rest positions the same as in individual drill with the following additions:

- a. On the command of execution REST of Parade, REST, execute the movement as in individual drill without moving the right hand or the carbine.
- b. On the command of execution EASE of Stand at, EASE, execute Parade Rest with the carbine except turn the head and eyes toward the person in charge of the formation.

- c. On the command AT EASE or REST, keep the carbine in place as in Parade Rest.

B-3. PORT ARMS

To execute Port Arms use the following procedures:

- a. Port Arms from Order Arms is a two-count movement (Figure B-3). The command is Port, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, reach across the body with the left hand and grasp the handguards just above the slip ring. On count two, release the grasp of the right hand and raise the carbine diagonally across the body so that the carbine is about 4 inches from the waist. At the same time, grasp the small of the stock with the right hand. Hold the carbine diagonally across the body about 4 inches from the waist, right forearm horizontal, and the elbows close to the sides.

- b. Order Arms from Port Arms is a two-count movement (Figure B-4, page B-4). The command is Order, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, release the grasp of the right hand and move the carbine to the side as in Order Arms with the carbine. At the same time, move the right hand to the side and then regrasp the butt of the carbine as in Order Arms. On count two, release the grasp of the left hand and return it sharply to the side and in the Position of Attention.

B-4. PRESENT ARMS

To execute Present Arms use the following procedures:

- a. Present Arms from Order Arms is a three-count movement (Figure B-5). The command is Present, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, execute Port Arms in two counts. On count three, twist the carbine with the right hand so that the carbine is vertical and centered on the body about 4 inches from the waist with the magazine well to the front. Lower the carbine until the left forearm is horizontal and keep the elbows tight against the sides.

b. Orders Arms from Present Arms is a three-count movement. The command is Order, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, twist the rifle back to the Port Arms position. Counts two and three are executed the same as from Port Arms.

B-5. INSPECTION ARMS

a. Inspection Arms from Order Arms is a seven-count movement (Figure B-6, page B-6). The command is Inspection, ARMS.

- (1) On the command of execution ARMS, execute Port Arms in the first two counts.
- (2) On count three, move the left hand from the handguard and grasp the pistol grip, thumb over the lower portion of the bolt catch.
- (3) On count four, release the grasp of the right hand, unlock the charging handle with the thumb, and sharply pull the charging handle to the rear with the thumb and forefinger. At the same time, apply pressure on the lower portion of the bolt catch, locking the bolt to the rear.
- (4) On count five, without changing the grasp of the right hand, sharply push the charging handle forward until it is locked into position; then regrasp the rifle with the right hand at the small of the stock.
- (5) On count six, remove the left hand, twist the carbine with the right hand so that the ejection port is skyward, regrasp the handguard with the left hand just forward of the slip ring, and visually inspect the receiver through the ejection port.
- (6) On count seven, with the right hand, twist the carbine so that the sights are up and come to Inspection Arms.

b. Ready, Port, ARMS is the only command given from Inspection Arms.

(1) On the command Ready, move the left hand and regrasp the carbine with the thumb and fingers forming a “U” at the magazine well and trigger guard, the thumb (without pressure) on the upper part of the bolt catch, fingertips placed below or under the ejection port cover.

(2) On the command Port, press the bolt catch and allow the bolt to go forward. With the fingertips, push upward and close the ejection port cover. Grasp the pistol grip with the left hand and place the left thumb on the trigger.

(3) On the command ARMS, pull the trigger and resume Port Arms. To return to Order Arms the command is Order, ARMS.

B-6. RIGHT SHOULDER ARMS

- a. Right Shoulder Arms from Order Arms is a four-count movement (Figure B-7).

The command is Right Shoulder, ARMS.

(1) On the command of execution ARMS, execute count one the same as in Port Arms.

(2) On count two, execute in the same as Port Arms except move the right hand to grasp the butt of the carbine with the heel of the butt between the first two fingers with the thumb and forefinger touching.

(3) On count three (without moving the head), release the grasp of the left hand (without changing the grasp of the right hand), twist the carbine so that the sights are up, and place the weapon onto the right shoulder, moving the left hand to the small of the stock to guide the carbine to the shoulder. Keep the fingers and thumb (left hand) extended and joined with the palm turned toward the body. The first joint of the left forefinger touches the rear of the charging handle. Keep the left elbow down, and keep the right forearm horizontal with the right upper arm against the side and on line with the back.

(4) On count four, sharply move the left hand back to the left side as in the Position of Attention.

b. Order Arms from Right Shoulder Arms is a three-count movement (Figure B-8). The command is Order, ARMS.

(1) On the command of execution ARMS, without moving the head and without changing the grasp of the right hand, press down quickly and firmly on the butt of the carbine with the right hand and twist the weapon (with the sights up), guiding it diagonally across the body and about 4 inches from the waist. Grasp the carbine with the left hand at the handguard just forward of the slip ring.

(2) On count two, release the grasp of the right hand and move the rifle to the side as in Order Arms, then regrasp the butt with the right hand.

(3) On count three, release the grasp of the left hand and return it sharply to the side as in the Position of Attention, resuming Order Arms.

a. Left Shoulder Arms from Order Arms is a four-count movement (Figure B-9). The command is Left Shoulder, ARMS.

(1) On the command of execution ARMS, execute Port Arms in two counts.

(2) On count three, release the grasp of the left hand and (without moving the head) place the carbine on the left shoulder with the right hand (with the sights up), keeping the right elbow down. At the same time, regrasp the carbine with the left hand with the heel of the butt between the first two fingers and with the thumb and forefinger touching. The left forearm is horizontal, and the left upper arm is against the side and on line with the back.

(3) On count four, move the right hand to the right side as in the Position of Attention.

b. Order Arms from Left Shoulder Arms is a four-count movement (Figure B-10, page B-10). The command is Order, ARMS.

(1) On the command of execution ARMS, move the right hand up and across the body and grasp the small of the stock, keeping the right elbow down.

(2) On count two (without moving the head), release the grasp of the left hand and, with the right hand, move the carbine diagonally across the body (sights up) about 4 inches from the waist. At the same time, regrasp the handguard just forward of the slip ring with the left hand, and resume Port Arms. Counts three and four are executed the same as from Port Arms.

B-8. CHANGING POSITIONS

a. Right Shoulder Arms from Port Arms is a three-count movement. The command is Right Shoulder, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, release the grasp of the right hand and regrasp the carbine with the heel of the butt between the first two fingers, with the thumb and forefinger touching. Counts two and three are the same as counts three and four from Order Arms. When marching, the command is given as the right foot strikes the marching surface.

e. Left Shoulder Arms from Right Shoulder Arms is a four-count movement. The command is Left Shoulder, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, execute count one the same as executing Order Arms. On count two, remove the right hand from the butt of the rifle and regrasp the small of the stock (Port Arms). Counts three and four are the same movements as from Port Arms. When marching, the command is given as the left foot strikes the marching surface.

f. Right Shoulder Arms from Left Shoulder Arms is a five-count movement. The command is Right Shoulder, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, execute Port Arms in two counts. Counts three, four, and five are the same as from Port Arms. When marching, the command is given as the right foot strikes the marching surface.

g. Present Arms from Right Shoulder Arms or Left Shoulder Arms, while in formation, is executed from the Halt only. The command is Present, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, come to Port Arms from either shoulder and then execute Present Arms (in one count) from Port Arms.

h. To resume Right (Left) Shoulder Arms from Present Arms, the command is Right (Left) Shoulder, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, execute Port Arms in one count and then execute the counts as prescribed from Port Arms.

NOTE: Experienced Soldiers should be able to execute the 15-count manual of arms in unison from Order, to Right Shoulder, to Left Shoulder, to Present, to Order Arms. The command is Fifteen-Count Manual, ARMS.

B-9. SLING ARMS—M4-SERIES CARBINE

These basic procedures apply to executing Sling Arms with the M4-series carbine.

- Remain at Sling Arms during all rest movements.
- All individual and unit drill movements can be executed at Sling Arms except Stack Arms and Fix and Unfix Bayonets, which are executed from Order Arms.
- When in formation at Sling Arms, execute the Hand Salute on the command Present, ARMS.
- Platoon leaders and platoon sergeants carry their carbines at Sling Arms during all drills and ceremonies, and from this position they execute Present Arms only. They do not execute Unslung Arms. This also applies to squad leaders when squads drill as separate units.
- When all members of a unit are carrying their carbines at Sling Arms, the platoon leaders and platoon sergeants execute Present Arms only. They do not execute Unslung Arms.

a. From Order Arms with the sling(s) loose, the command for Sling Arms is Sling, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, grasp the sling near the upper sling swivel with the left hand, and release the right hand. Place the right hand and arm between the sling and carbine and place the sling over the right shoulder. Regrasp the sling with the right hand so that the wrist is straight, the right forearm is horizontal, the elbow is tight against the side, and the carbine is vertical. Release the grasp of the left hand and move it sharply to the left side as in the position of attention.

b. To return the rifle to Order Arms with the sling tight, the command is Adjust, SLINGS. On command of execution SLINGS, remove the rifle from the shoulder. Then, grasp the barrel with the right hand and raise it vertically. With the left hand, place the butt of the carbine on the right hip and cradle it in the crook of the right arm. Use both hands to tighten the sling. Grasp the handguards just above the slip ring with the left hand and move the weapon to the Order Arms position. At the same, move the right hand to the side and grasp the butt of the weapon. After grasping the butt with the right hand, release the grasp of the left hand and return it sharply to the side as in the Position of Attention and return to Order Arms.

c. From Order Arms with sling(s) tight, the command is Sling, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, reach across the body with the left hand and grasp the handguards just above the slip ring and, with the right hand, place the butt on the right hip, cradle the carbine in the crook of the right arm, and use both hands to adjust the sling. Grasp the sling with the left hand near the upper sling swivel and execute Sling Arms (as previously described).

d. If an element is at Order Arms with the sling loose and the commander wants the sling to be tightened, he commands Adjust SLINGS. On the command of execution SLINGS, tighten the sling and move the carbine to order arms (as previously described).

NOTE: Unless otherwise specified, armed elements of a formation fall in at Order Arms with slings loose.

e. To return the carbine to Order Arms with the sling loose, the command is Unslung, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, reach across the body with the left hand and grasp the sling at the right shoulder. Release the grasp of the right hand and remove the carbine from the shoulder. Grasp the barrel with the right hand, release the left hand and regrasp the handguards just above the slip ring, release the grasp of the right hand, and move the carbine to the Order Arms position (as previously described). Move the carbine to the position of Order Arms and regrasp the butt with the right hand. After grasping the butt with the right hand, release the grasp of the left hand and return it sharply to the side as in the Position of Attention and return to Order Arms.

NOTE: All other manual of arms movements with the M4 slung are the same as with the M16-series rifle when slung. This includes situations when the sling is mounted to the side.

B-10. STACK AND TAKE ARMS (M4-SERIES CARBINE)

The squad members execute Stack and Take Arms from their positions in line formation (at Normal Interval) from Order Arms. When in line formation, the squad leader commands Count, OFF and then designates the stack men by numbers (2-5-8).

- NOTES:
1. M4-series carbines are not compatible with the M16-series rifles when stacking arms. The two types of weapons must be stacked separately or grounded in a manner that will not damage the sights.
 2. When the squad is part of a larger unit, Stack Arms may be executed in a column formation (when the formation consists of three or more files and the squads are at Normal Interval). Second or third squad is designated as the stack squad.

a. Prepare Slings. After the stack men are designated, the squad leader then commands Prepare, SLINGS. On the command of execution SLINGS, each stack man (or stack squad) reaches across the body with the left hand and grasp the handguards just above the slip ring. With the right hand he places the butt on the right hip and cradles the carbine in the crook of the right arm. Using both hands, he adjusts the sling keeper so that a 2-inch loop is formed from the sling keeper to the upper sling swivel. As soon as the loop is prepared, he returns to Order Arms.

b. Stack Arms. When all stack men have returned to Order Arms, the squad leader commands Stack, ARMS (Figure B-11, page B-15).

(1) On the command of execution ARMS, each stack man reaches across the body with the left hand and grasps the handguards just above the slip ring. The stackman then grasps the barrel of his carbine with his right hand and places the carbine directly in front of and centered on his body with the sling side to the front. The butt (fully extended) is placed on the marching surface so that the heel of the butt (or side of the butt if the sling is side-mounted) is on line with the toes of his footgear. The stack man bends deeply forward at the waist and grasps his carbine with his left hand at the upper portion of the handguard (keeping the carbine vertical at all times). The first two fingers of the left hand hold the inner part of the loop against the carbine. The stack man reaches across the front of the carbine with his right hand, grasps the outer part of the loop, and holds it open for insertion of other carbines.

(2) On the command of execution ARMS, the men to the right and left of the stack man perform the following movements simultaneously:

(a) The man on the stack man's right reaches across the body with the left hand and grasps the handguard. He releases the grasp of the right hand, and regrasps the carbine at the small of the stock. He lowers both arms, with elbows locked holding the rifle in a horizontal position with the muzzle to the left and the magazine well to the front.

(b) The man on the stack man's left reaches across the body with the left hand and grasps the rifle at the small of the stock, releases the right hand, and regrasps the handguard. He then lowers both arms, with elbows locked (holding the carbine in a horizontal position with the muzzle to the right and magazine well to the front).

(3) As soon as the stack man has placed his carbine in position, both men move the foot nearest the stack man halfway (Half Right or Half Left) toward the stack man. The man on the stack man's left inserts the muzzle of his carbine into the loop to a point about halfway between the flash suppressor and the front sight assembly. He holds his carbine in this position until the man on the stack man's right inserts the muzzle of his carbine in a similar manner and above the other muzzle.

(4) Without moving the feet, both men swing the butt of their carbines out and then down to the marching surface, making the stack tight with the butts on line and about 1 foot from the base line. When the stack has been completed, all three men resume the Position of Attention.

(5) Additional carbines are passed to the nearest stack on the right (right or left if stacked in column). The men with additional rifles grasp the handguards with the left hand, releases the grasp of the right hand and regrasps the weapon at the barrel. The men release the grasp of the left hand and raise the carbine vertically with the magazine well to the front, wrist held shoulder high, elbow locked, and right arm extended to the right front.

(a) The man to the left of the stack man then grasps the carbine at the handguard with his left hand. The man passing the additional carbine then releases the rifle and sharply returns to the Position of Attention. The man to the left of the stack man then moves the carbine to the right until it is centered on his body, and he grasps the barrel with his right hand, wrist held shoulder high and elbow locked. He then releases the left hand and sharply returns his left hand to the left side as in the Position of Attention. He then moves the carbine to his right front.

(b) The stack man receives the carbine and centers it in the same manner as previously described. The man to the left of the stack man sharply returns to the Position of Attention after he releases the carbine. Once the stack man has centered the carbine and grasped the barrel with the right hand, he bends forward at the waist and places the carbine in the stack so that it is secure (without damaging the front sight assembly). If there are two additional carbines, the second carbine is passed in the same manner as the first.

c. Take Arms. To Take Arms, the command is Take, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, the men return the additional carbines in the same manner as the carbines were received. The stack man secures the stack and holds the loop in the same manner as for stacking arms. The men on the left and right step toward the stack man in the same manner as when stacking arms. Each man reaches down and regrasps his carbine (one hand at the small of the stock and one at the handguard) and brings it to the horizontal position. The man on the right frees his carbine first and resumes Order Arms. The man on the left frees his carbine and resumes Order Arms. The stack man cradles his carbine and adjusts the sling and sling keeper to its original position and then resumes Order Arms.

Appendix C

MANUAL OF ARMS—M14 RIFLE

The manual of arms with the M14 (Figure C-1) rifle is executed in the same manner as the manual of arms for the M16-series rifle (Chapter 5) except Inspection Arms, Stack Arms, Order Arms, and some movements of Present Arms.

C-1. ORDER ARMS

Execute Order Arms in the same manner as explained for the M16-series rifle except place the butt of the rifle on the marching surface with the toe of the butt on line with the front of the right foot (Figure C-2, page C-2).

C-2. REST POSITION

Execute the Rest position in the same manner as explained for the M16-series rifle except keep the toe of the butt on line with the front of the right foot (Figure C-2, page C-2).

C-3. PORT ARMS

C-4. PRESENT ARMS

To execute Present Arms with the M14 rifle (Figure C-3), use the following procedures:

- a. When at Order Arms, the left arm moves across the body on count one with the forearm and wrist straight, fingers and thumb extended and joined, and palm down. The first joint of the forefinger touches the rifle at a point below the bayonet stud. If not in ranks, the head and eyes turn toward the person or Color saluted. On count two, the left hand is moved smartly to the side and the head and eyes are turned to the front.

NOTE: When not at Order Arms, execute the movement in the same manner as previously described for the M16-series rifle.

b. When at Right Shoulder Arms, the movement is executed by moving the left arm across the chest and touching the first joint of the forefinger to the rear of the receiver. The left elbow is held so that the left forearm is horizontal. Fingers, thumb, and wrist are held as for Order Arms. The palm is down. Count two of the rifle Salute at Right Shoulder Arms is similar to the return from the rifle Salute at Order Arms.

c. When at Left Shoulder Arms, the Salute is executed by moving the right arm across the chest and touching the first joint of the forefinger to the rear of the receiver. The right elbow is held so that the forearm is horizontal. The fingers, thumb, and wrist are as described in paragraph C-4a. The palm is down. Count two is similar to the return from the rifle Salute at Right Shoulder Arms.

C-5. RIGHT SHOULDER ARMS

Execute Right Shoulder Arms in the same manner as explained for the M16-series rifle except change the term “charging” to “receiver” (Figure C-3).

C-7. INSPECTION ARMS

a. Counts one and two are the same as with the M16 -series rifle (Port Arms). On count three, release the small of the stock and move the right hand forward (fingers extended and joined, thumb on the opposite side of the receiver). Place the knife edge on the hand in contact with the operating rod handle. On count four, press the operating rod handle sharply to the rear and lock the bolt to the rear by pressing the bolt lock with the thumb. At the same time, lower the head and eyes to check the receiver. On count five, raise the head and eyes back to the front and regrasp the small of the stock with the right hand, assuming the Inspection Arms position.

b. Ready, Port, ARMS is the only command that is given from Inspection Arms. On the command Ready, relax the grip of the right hand and hook the top of the forefinger to the rear. On the command Port, release the operating rod handle (allowing the bolt to go forward) and place the forefinger on the trigger. On the command of execution ARMS, pull the trigger and come to Port Arms.

C-8. FIX AND UNFIX BAYONETS

Execute Fix and Unfix Bayonets in the same manner as explained for the M16-series rifle.

C-9. SLING ARMS

Execute Sling Arms in the same manner as explained for the M16-series rifle.

C-10. STACK AND TAKE ARMS

Execute Stack Arms using the following procedures:

a. Stack Arms is executed from Order Arms only. It may be executed while at Normal Interval in a line (squad) or a column formation. Stack Arms is not a precise movement; however, it is executed in a military manner.

b. The leader designates the stackmen by numbers (2-5-8) when in a line formation, or by squad (second or third) when in a column formation. After the stackmen have been designated, the leader then commands Prepare, SLINGS.

c. On the command SLINGS, each stackman places the butt of his rifle on his right hip and cradles it in the crook of his right arm. He then adjusts the sling keeper to form a 2-inch loop next to the upper sling swivel. As soon as he has prepared the loop, he returns to Order Arms.

d. When all stackmen have returned to Order Arms, the leader commands Stack, ARMS. On the command ARMS, each stackman places his rifle directly in front of and centered on his body with the sling facing to the front. The heel of the rifle butt is on the marching surface on line with the toes of his shoes. He grasps the rifle by the handguard with his left hand. The first two fingers of the left hand hold the inner part of the loop against the rifle. He reaches across the front of the rifle with the right hand, grasps the outer part of the loop, and holds it open for the insertion of the other rifles. He holds the rifle vertical at all times (1, Figure C-5, page C-6).

e. On the command ARMS, the men to the left and right of the stackman perform the following movements simultaneously:

(1) The man on the stackman's left raises and centers his rifle in front of his body so that his right hand is shoulder high and the rifle is about 4 inches from his chest, with the sling to the front. He then grasps the rifle with his left hand at the small of the stock and lowers both arms, holding the weapon in a horizontal position (1, Figure C-5, page C-6).

(2) The man on the stackman's right raises and centers his rifle, wrist shoulder high, with the sling facing the front. He then grasps the rifle with his left hand directly below his right hand, and, in the most convenient manner, grasps the rifle with the right hand at the small of the stock. He then lowers both arms, holding the rifle stock. He then lowers both arms, holding the rifle in a horizontal position (1, Figure C-5, page C-6).

(3) As soon as both men have completed these movements, each moves the foot nearest the stackman 18 inches (Half Left or Right) toward the stackman. In a continuing motion, the man on the stackman's left inserts the muzzle of his rifle into the loop held by the stackman until the bayonet stud protrudes past the far end of the loop (2, Figure C-5, page C-6). He holds his rifle in that position until the man on the stackman's right inserts the muzzle of his rifle through the loop in the same manner and above the muzzle of the rifle of the left man.

f. When both rifles have been inserted into the loop, the men on each side of the stackman swing the butts of their rifles out and down to the marching surface until the stack is tight with the (two) rifle butts on line and about 2 feet from the baseline.

g. After necessary adjustments have been made, the three men come to Attention (3, Figure C-5).

h. Extra rifles are passed to the nearest stack on the right. As each rifle is passed, it is grasped at the upper part of the handguard with the right hand. Then, with the rifle held vertical, it is passed with fully extended arm to the right front. The man on the right grasps the rifle at the balance with his left hand, brings the rifle to the center of his body, and regrasps it at the upper part of the handguard with his right hand. This action continues until the stackman receives the rifle and places it on the stack with his right hand as nearly vertical as possible. He places the rifles on the stack with the slings away from the stack (if the second squad is the stack squad, extra rifles are passed to the left).

i. To Take Arms, the leader commands Take, ARMS.

(1) On the command ARMS, the stackman passes each extra rifle toward its bearer. The rifles are handled in the manner described for passing them to the stack (left hand at the balance, right hand at the upper part of the handguard). As the men receive their rifles, they come to Order Arms.

(2) After all extra rifles have been returned, the stackman grasps the base rifles, holding the loop open as in Stack Arms.

(3) The men to the right and left of the stackman take one step to their left and right fronts, respectively. They reach down, grasp their rifles, and bring the rifles to a horizontal position. The man to the right of the stackman frees his rifle from the stack first. Each man returns to Order Arms after Unslung Arms and retrieves his rifle. He does this by guiding and steadying the rifle with his left hand (as in the next to the last count of Order Arms).

(4) The stackman adjusts the sling of his rifle before returning to Order Arms.

Appendix D

MANUAL OF ARMS—M1903 OR M1917 RIFLE

NOTE: The term “at the balance” refers to where the trailing edge of the top handguard meets the front edge of the breech. The trailing edge of the hand is placed in this area. Figure D-1 shows the location of the balance.

D-1. ORDER ARMS

Execute Order Arms using the following procedures:

a. Assume Order Arms on the command FALL IN or from Parade Rest on the command of execution ATTENTION.

b. At Order Arms, maintain the Position of Attention with the rifle. Place the butt of the rifle on the marching surface with sights to the rear and touching the right foot. Place the toe of the butt on line with the front of the right foot. Secure the rifle with the right hand in a “U” formed by the fingers (extended and joined) and thumb. Keep the right arm as in the Position of Attention and hold the rifle with the right thumb and fingers with the fingers pointed generally downward and touching the sides of the handguards. Keep the right hand and arm behind the rifle (Figure D-2).

D-2. REST POSITION

The rifle Rest positions are commanded and executed the same as individual drill with the following additions:

- a. On the command of execution REST of Parade, REST, thrust the muzzle forward keeping the toe of the butt on line with the front of the right foot and the right arm straight (Figure D-2).
- b. Execute Stand at Ease with the rifle in the same manner as Parade Rest except turn the head and eyes toward the commander.
- c. On the command AT EASE or REST, keep the butt of the rifle in place as in Parade Rest.

D-3. PORT ARMS

Execute Port Arms from Order Arms using the following procedures;

a. Port Arms from Order Arms is a two-count movement. The command is Port, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, grasp the rifle with the right hand and raise the rifle diagonally across the body, keeping the right elbow down (without strain). With the left hand, simultaneously grasp the rifle at the balance so that the rifle is about 4 inches from the waist. On count two, regrasp the rifle at the small of the stock with the right hand. Hold the rifle diagonally across the body, about 4 inches from the waist, the right forearm horizontal, and the elbows close to the sides (Figure D-3).

b. Order Arms from Port Arms is executed in three counts. The command is Order, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, move the right hand up and across the body and firmly grasp the rifle just forward of the lower band without moving the rifle, and keep the right elbow down without strain. On count two, move the left hand from the balance and lower the rifle to the right side until it is about 1 inch from the marching surface. Guide the rifle to the side by placing the forefinger of the left hand at the forward edge of the upper band, fingers and thumb extended and joined, palm to the rear. On count three, move the left hand sharply to the left side, gently lower the rifle to the marching surface, and resume the position of Order Arms (Figure D-3).

D-4. PRESENT ARMS

Execute Present Arms using the following procedures:

a. Present Arms from Order Arms is a three-count movement. The command is Present, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, execute Port Arms in two counts. On count three, twist the rifle with the right hand so that the sights are to the rear, and move the rifle to a vertical position about 4 inches in front of and centered on the body. Lower the rifle until the left forearm is horizontal; keep the elbows in at the sides. Keep the left thumb alongside and touching the handguard.

NOTE: Incline the barrel slightly backward to ensure that the weapon is vertical.

b. Order Arms from Present Arms is a four-count movement. The command is Order, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, return the rifle to Port Arms. Counts two, three, and four are the same as Order Arms from Port Arms (Figure D-4).

c. Port Arms is assumed en route to or from Present Arms when going to or from Right Shoulder Arms or Left Shoulder Arms. Present Arms from or to Port Arms is a one-count movement.

d. When rendering reports or courtesy to an individual from Order Arms, execute Present Arms and turn the head and eyes toward the individual addressed. Order Arms is executed automatically upon acknowledgment of the Salute.

a. Right Shoulder Arms from Order Arms is a four-count movement. The command is Right Shoulder, ARMS. Execute count one, the command of execution ARMS, the same as in executing Port Arms. On count two, release the grasp of the right hand and grasp the heel of the butt between the first two fingers with the thumb and forefinger touching. On count three (without moving the head), release the grasp of the left hand (without changing the grasp of the right hand), twist the rifle so that the sights are up, and place the weapon onto the right shoulder, moving the left hand to the small of the stock to guide the rifle to the shoulder. Keep the fingers and thumb (left hand) extended and joined with the palm turned toward the body. The first joint of the left forefinger touches the rear of the cocking piece. Keep the left elbow down, and keep the right forearm horizontal with the right upper arm against the side and on line with the back. On count four, sharply move the left hand back to the left side as in the Position of Attention (Figure D-5).

b. Order Arms from Right Shoulder Arms is a four-count movement. The command is Order, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, without moving the head and without changing the grasp of the right hand, press down quickly and firmly on the butt of the rifle with the right hand and twist the weapon (with the sights up), guiding it diagonally across the body and about 4 inches from the waist. Grasp the rifle with the left hand at the balance. On count two, move the right hand up and across the body and firmly grasp the rifle just forward of the lower band without moving the rifle; keep the right elbow down without strain. Counts three and four are the same as from Port Arms to Order Arms (Figure D-5, page D-6).

a. Left Shoulder Arms from Order Arms is a four-count movement. The command is Left Shoulder, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, execute Port Arms in two counts. On count three, release the grasp of the left hand and (without moving the head) place the rifle on the left shoulder with the right hand (with the sights up), keeping the right elbow down. At the same time, regrasp the rifle with the left hand with the heel of the butt between the first two fingers and with the thumb and forefinger touching. The left forearm is horizontal, and the left upper arm is against the side and on line with the back. On count four, move the right hand to the right side as in the Position of Attention (Figure D-6).

D-7. INSPECTION ARMS

Execute Inspection Arms using the following procedures:

a. Inspection Arms from Order Arms is a five-count movement. The command is Inspection, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, execute Port Arms in two counts. On count three, grasp the bolt handle with the thumb and forefinger of the right hand, rotate the handle upward and draw the bolt back. On count four, lower the head and eyes and visually inspect the magazine. On count five, return the head and eyes to the front as in the Position of Attention, and come to Inspection Arms (Figure D-7).

NOTE: The method for inspecting the rifle by an inspecting officer is explained in Chapter 7.

b. Port, ARMS is the only command given from Inspection Arms. On the command Port, push the bolt forward and rotate the handle down locking the bolt in place, then release the grasp of the right hand and regrasp the small of the stock with the right forefinger on the trigger. On the command ARMS, pull the trigger and resume Port Arms (Figure D-7).

Appendix E

MANUAL OF ARMS—SPECIALTY WEAPONS

This appendix contains procedures for executing the manual of arms with the M249 squad automatic weapon (Figure E-1), M203 grenade launcher, shotgun, and pistol.

E-1. M249 SQUAD AUTOMATIC WEAPON

The M249 is carried at Sling Arms in the same manner as the M16. All individual drill movements (as applicable) are executed while at Sling Arms. When At Ease or Rest is commanded (from Parade Rest), the Soldier unslings the weapon and places the butt of the weapon on the marching surface beside his right foot. The only manual of arms movements that may be executed are Present Arms (Present Arms at Sling Arms), Unslung Arms, Inspection Arms, and Ready Port Arms. (Inspection Arms and Ready Port Arms may only be executed from the Order Arms position.) During all other manual of arms movements, the Soldier remains at Sling Arms.

a. Inspection Arms with the M249. The command for this movement is Inspection, ARMS.

b. On the command of execution ARMS, execute Port Arms from Order Arms in two counts. On count three, grasp the pistol grip with the right hand and reach under the weapon with the left hand and grasp the cocking handle (the back of the hand faces toward the muzzle). On count four, sharply push the cocking handle rearward so that the bolt is locked to the rear. On count five, sharply return the cocking handle to its original position. On count six, bring the left hand between the body and weapon, unlock the feed tray cover (with the thumb and forefinger), and raise the feed tray cover. On count seven, grasp the feed tray with the left hand, open the feed tray and feed tray cover as far as possible, and observe the chamber. On count eight, regrasp the handguard with the left hand and the comb of the stock with the right hand, and come to Inspection Arms (Figure E-2).

c. Ready, Port ARMS is the only command that is given from Inspection Arms. On the command Ready, grasp the pistol grip with the right hand and the feed tray cover with the left hand and close the feed tray cover. On the command Port, grasp the cocking handle with the left hand and sharply push the cocking handle to its most rearward position. On the command ARMS, pull the trigger with the right forefinger and ride the bolt forward with the left hand, then return to the Port Arms position (Figure E-2).

E-2. M203 GRENADE LAUNCHER

This paragraph contains the procedures for executing the manual of arms movements with the M203 weapon.

a. Basic Procedures. The following basic procedures apply to the M203 weapon.

(1) The M203 weapon is carried at Sling Arms. All individual drill movements are executed as prescribed while remaining at Sling Arms.

(2) The only manual of arms movements that may be executed are Present Arms (Hand Salute), Port Arms, and Inspection Arms. Individuals armed with the M203 weapon remain at Sling Arms during other manual of arms movements; or, they return to Sling Arms from Port Arms when other members with M16-series rifles are commanded to other positions.

b. Manual Movements with the M203. To execute manual movements with the M203 (Figure E-3), use the following procedures:

(1) Present Arms. The Hand Salute with the M203 is executed in the same manner as prescribed for the M16-series rifle (while at Sling Arms).

(2) Port Arms. Execute Port Arms (Figure E-3) in the same manner as with the M16-series rifle from Sling Arms except grasp the weapon at the bottom of the hand guard on the barrel of the M203.

(3) Inspection Arms. Execute Inspection Arms (Figure E-3) with the M203 weapon the same as Inspection Arms (while at Sling Arms) with the M16-series rifle. After completing the movements for Inspection Arms, press the barrel release latch with the left thumb, slide the barrel to the left, and visually inspect the chamber.

(4) Ready Port Arms. Execute Ready Port Arms the same as Ready Port Arms with the M16-series rifle with one exception: on the command Ready, the first action is to close the barrel and pull the trigger of the grenade launcher.

E-3. SHOTGUN (RIOT)

Except for Inspection Arms, execute the manual of arms with the shotgun in the same manner as prescribed for the M16-series rifle. Carry the weapon at the Ready Position when physically guarding prisoners (Figure E-4). The courtesy (Salute) is not rendered to individuals while performing as a prisoner guard; however, during the playing of the National Anthem, "To the Color," "Ruffles and Flourishes," "Reveille," or "Taps," command the prisoners to Attention, remain facing them, and execute Present Arms from the Ready Position.

a. Ready Position. Assume the Ready Position in the most convenient manner. Place the butt of the weapon on the right hip and grasp the weapon with the right hand forward of the trigger guard. Bend the right arm comfortably, and keep the gun barrel at an angle from the body and the muzzle skyward. To ease fatigue, carry the weapon in the same manner on the left hip.

b. Inspection Arms With the Shotgun. Inspection Arms from Order Arms is a three-count movement. Execute Inspection Arms as follows:

(1) The command is Inspection, ARMS. On the command of execution ARMS, execute Port Arms (M16-series) in two counts. On count three, push the slide to the right with the left hand (over the sling). Twist the weapon to visually inspect the receiver through the ejection port and then come to Inspection Arms.

(2) Ready, Port, ARMS is the only command that may be given from Inspection Arms. On the command Ready, take no action. On the command Port, move the slide to the left (close the bolt) and place the right forefinger on the trigger. On the command ARMS, pull the trigger and come to Port Arms.

E-4. AUTOMATIC PISTOLS

This paragraph contains the procedures for executing the manual of arms with automatic pistols (FM 3-23.35). All individual drill movements are executed as prescribed with the weapon secure in the holster. The only manual of arms movements that may be executed are Present Arms (Hand Salute) and Inspection Arms. During other manual of arms movements, remain at attention. The position of Raised Pistol represents the position of Port Arms when challenging as a sentinel on guard duty.

a. Present Arms. The Hand Salute is executed in the same manner as prescribed in individual drill for the M16-series rifle.

b. Raised Pistol. For instructional purposes, the command Raised, PISTOL is used to teach individuals the procedures for challenging.

(1) On the command of execution PISTOL, unbutton the flap of the holster with the right hand and grasp the pistol grip. Withdraw the pistol from the holster, raising the right forearm to the front until the hand is about 6 inches in front of the right shoulder, and the right elbow is against the right side. Hold the pistol grip in a “U” formed by the thumb and last three fingers. Extend the forefinger outside and alongside the trigger guard. Point the muzzle outward and up at about a 30-degree angle (Figure E-5, page E-8).

(2) On the command Return, PISTOL, return the weapon in the most convenient manner to the holster, fasten the flap, and come to attention.

c. Inspection Arms. The command for this movement is Inspection, ARMS.

(1) On the command of execution ARMS, execute raised pistol and then, without lowering the right hand, reach across the body and grasp the slide with the left thumb and the first two fingers so that the thumb is on the left side of the slide. Shift the grip of the right hand so that the right thumb engages the slide stop. Push the slide fully to the rear and engage the stop in its notch with the right thumb. Return the left hand to the left side and remain at raised pistol.

(2) Ready, Port, ARMS is the only command that may be given from Inspection Arms. On the command Ready, place the right thumb on the slide stop. On the command Port, press down on the slide stop, allowing the slide to go forward, and then place the forefinger on the trigger. On the command ARMS, pull the trigger and return the weapon to the holster, fasten the flap, and come to Attention.

(3) To execute Inspection Arms with the magazine in the weapon, execute Raised pistol and then remove the magazine and place it between the belt and clothing before locking the slide to the rear. After pulling the trigger, and before returning the pistol to the holster, return the magazine to the weapon.

(4) If the pistol is inspected in ranks and the inspecting officer takes the weapon, lower the right hand smartly to the right side. When the inspecting officer is ready to return the pistol, raise the right hand back to the raised position and accept the weapon. After the pistol is returned, allow the slide to go forward, pull the trigger, return the pistol to the holster, and come to Attention.

Appendix F

MANUAL OF ARMS—SABER AND SWORD

The saber is worn by officers while participating in ceremonies with troops under arms, or as directed. It is carried on the left side of the body attached to the belt by the scabbard chain with the guard of the saber to the rear. The sword is worn by all platoon sergeants and first sergeants while participating in ceremonies with troops under arms, or as directed. It is carried in the same manner as the officer's saber.

F-1. NOMENCLATURE

The nomenclature for the saber is saber for all officers, model 1902. The blade is 31 inches long. The nomenclature for the sword is noncommissioned officer's sword, model 1840. Figure F-1 shows the nomenclature for pertinent parts of the saber (sword) and scabbard.

F-2. STANDING MANUAL OF ARMS

Execute Standing with the saber (sword) using the following procedures:

- Attention. This is the position before the command Draw, SABER (SWORD) and after the command Return, SABER (SWORD). The hands are behind the trouser seams and the thumbs touch the first joint of the forefingers (Figure F-2, page F-2).

(1) At the preparatory command Draw, grasp the scabbard with the left hand turning the scabbard clockwise 180 degrees, tilting it forward to form an angle of 45 degrees with the ground. Take the saber (sword) grip in the right hand and pull the saber about 6 inches from the scabbard. The right forearm should now be roughly parallel to the ground.

(2) On the command of execution SABER (SWORD), the saber (sword) is pulled out of the scabbard and held in the position of Carry Saber (Sword). The saber (sword) should be held with the inner blade-edge riding in a vertical position along the forward tip of the right shoulder (Figure F-4, page F-5).

c. Carry Saber (Sword). The Carry Saber (Sword) position is assumed under the following situations:

- To give commands.
- To change positions.
- By officers when officially addressing (or when officially addressed by) another officer, if the saber is drawn.
- By NCOs when officially addressing a Soldier, or when officially addressed by an officer, if the sword is drawn.
- Before returning the saber (sword) to the scabbard.
- At the preparatory command for (and while marching at) quick time.

(1) At Carry Saber (Sword) (Figure F-4), the officer (NCO) is at the Position of Attention. The saber (sword) is held in the right hand; the wrist is as straight as possible with the thumb along the seam of the trouser leg. The point of the blade rests inside the point of the shoulder and not along the arm. The saber (sword) is held in this position by the thumb and forefinger grasping the grip, and it is steadied with the second finger behind the grip.

(2) Present Saber (Sword) may be executed from the carry when serving in the capacity of commander of troops or serving in a command that is not part of a larger unit. On the preparatory command of Present, the saber (sword) is brought to a position (at the rate, of two counts) approximately four inches from the nose so that the tip of the saber (sword) is six inches from the vertical (1, Figure F-5, page F-6). At the command of execution ARMS, the right hand is lowered (at the rate of two counts) with the flat of the blade upward, the thumb extended on the left side of the grip (2, Figure F-5, page F-6), and the tip of the saber (sword) about six inches from the marching surface.

(3) On the command Order ARMS, the saber (sword) is returned to the position of Carry Saber (Sword).

NOTE: Whenever the saber (sword) is at the Order Arms position the saber (sword) is straight, not at an angle inward or outward in relationship to the body.

e. Return Saber (Sword). This movement is executed from Carry Saber (Sword) in three counts.

(1) At the preparatory command Return of the command Officers (Noncommissioned officers), Return, SABER (SWORD), the saber (sword) is brought to a vertical position (1, Figure F-7, page F-8). The forearm (wrist) is held parallel to the marching surface about three inches from the body; the guard is pointed to the left.

(2) At the command of execution SABER (SWORD), three actions take place simultaneously: the saber (sword) is pivoted downward toward the guard, at the same time grasp the scabbard with the left hand just above the upper brass ring mounting. Tilt it forward and turn it clockwise 180 degrees. The scabbard should form a 45-degree angle with the ground, and the saber (sword) bearer turns his head to the left and, looks down to observe the mouthpiece of the scabbard (the shoulders remain squared to the front and level). As smoothly and as quickly as possible, the saber (sword) is inserted into the Scabbard and stopped so that about 12 inches of the blade is showing; the right forearm (wrist) is horizontal to the marching surface and three inches from the body (2, Figure F-7).

(3) At the command of execution CUT of the command Ready, CUT, the saber (sword) is thrust smartly into the scabbard, the scabbard is rotated so that its tip is forward, and the saber (sword) bearer comes to Attention (3, Figure F-7).

F-3. MARCHING MANUAL OF ARMS

a. Eyes Right While Marching. The command Eyes, RIGHT is executed while marching at Carry Saber (Sword). The command Ready is given as the right foot strikes the marching surface (no action is taken). The second time the right foot strikes the marching surface, the command Eyes is given and the saber (sword) is brought to the position (count one position) of Present Arms. No action is taken the third time the right foot strikes the marching surface. The fourth time the right foot strikes the marching surface, the command Right is given. As the foot strikes the marching surface, the head is turned sharply to the right at a 45 degree angle, and the saber (sword) is brought downward (Figure F-9, page F-10).

(1) While marching at Present Saber (Sword), the right arm is swung naturally (nine inches to the front and six inches to the rear) in a vertical plane, flexing the wrist to keep the tip of the blade level (about six inches) above the marching surface. This requires extending the wrist on the forward movement and elevating the wrist on the rearward movement.

(2) The command Ready, FRONT is executed as follows: The command Ready is given as the right foot strikes the marching surface (no action is taken). The second time the right foot strikes the marching surface, a second command Ready is given (again, no action is taken). The saber (sword) is returned to the Order position while maintaining the arm swing (subparagraph b) as the right foot strikes the marching surface the third time. The fourth time the right foot strikes the marching surface the command FRONT is given. The head is turned sharply to the front as the right foot strikes the marching surface and the saber (sword) is returned to the Carry position the next time the left foot strikes the marching surface.

b. Port Arms. Port Arms (Figure F-10) is executed on the preparatory command Double Time of the command Double Time, MARCH. This position is assumed only from the position of Carry Saber (Sword). The right arm swings naturally across and 6 inches in front of the body. The saber (sword) is canted 45 degrees from the vertical with the guard pointed to the left. The left hand grasps the scabbard.
