Ms. Lindley for finding interesting ways to engage your students with your "campus crime-scenes"!

Mrs. Monroe for the way you give feedback and correction opportunities to your students as they learn to become better writers!

Mr. Haney for the way you organize and structure your classroom to promote student self-reliance!

Mrs. Stanley and our NHS students for setting up our "Classroom Cleanup" day!

C-USA Advisors for putting on our 1st conference event of the semester this week! We definitely have some "gamers" at ATEMS!
