

What's Going on, Mann?

April 21st, 2021

Powerlifting Team Pushes in the Fight for City Champs

The powerlifting season started off extremely well with the practice meet April 12th. The girls scored an astounding total of fifty points. Both the girls and the boys did great, all thanks to hard work and excellent coaching.

Powerlifting is not only fun, but is also extremely rewarding. "My favorite part about powerlifting is seeing the athletes be successful and lifting more than they expected" said Coach Diaz. The Powerlifting team competed in the city meet on April 20th and now hopes to carry a three year streak of winning city champs.

Terrific Tennis Invitational

The Falcon tennis team competed in the AISD tennis invitational on Saturday, April the 24th from 8:30 to noon. All middle schools in the district as well as Wylie competed in the invitational in singles and doubles matches.

Players were spread across town at various AISD schools for their matches. Many players took home awards and the entire team made Mann proud.

8th grade Falcon tennis players play practice matches during 8th period in the week leading up to the invitational.

Theatre Prepares for One-Act

This weekend, Mann Falcon Theatre will be competing in the UIL One-Act competition April 24. This years' One-Act play is called #UNHEARD. The play is about a group of young students who decide to start a movement that gives themselves and others a place to use their voice. Some main themes prevalent throughout the play are friendship and belonging. 7th grade advanced theatre student Charlie Kennedy said, "cope with their problems in a healthy way with friends by their side." The actors have been doing read throughs and the crew has been busy preparing the set and props during rehearsal. The competition will be held at Cooper High School on Saturday, April 24th.

Food, Fun, and Games at the History Extravaganza

The 8th grade history department is putting on a STAAR Blitz on Tuesday, April 27th, beginning after school, and ending at 6pm. 8th grade students must sign up with Mrs. VanCamp or Mrs. Hill by Friday, 4/23.