

Summer Reading Task: This may be completed on paper or on the provided template.

1. As you read, complete the 4 tasks below.
2. Be sure to list any appropriate quotations, details, or examples that support your responses. (Include page numbers so you can locate the information when class begins.)

Describe the Setting. Consider the real time period and geographical location. Setting also includes the physical landscape, climate, weather, and the societal and cultural surroundings.	Why is the setting important to the plot?
Fever 1793
How does the setting impact the story?	In what way(s) can you or present day U.S.A. connect with the story's setting?