Jefferson Room

The District-Wide Consultation Committee (DWCC) held a District of Innovation Public Forum on Wednesday February 28, 2018 at 5:00 p.m., in the Jefferson Room at One AISD Center. The following DWCC Committee members attended Opal Mobbs, Steven Shinkle, Shelly Reed, Mike Richins, Candace Kennemer, Linda White, Stephanie Hammer, Roger Thomas, Hailey Lew, Jessica Melson, Elizabeth Wagstaff, Tracy Howle, Phil Ashby, Dr. Young and Summer Cox. Also present were members of the DOI Committee and members of the public.

Cheryl Cunningham welcomed the DWCC and DOI Committees and guests to the meeting.

Mrs. Cunningham discussed the timeline of becoming a District of Innovation. The committee was made up of 26 teachers, 5 parents, 3 administrators and Mrs. Cunningham serving as chairperson of the committee. The main elements of the DOI Plan are the District Calendar and Teacher Contracts. With a District of Innovation designation, flexibility with the calendar start and end dates will be allowed for consideration. It will also allow flexibility with teacher certifications within specific guidelines.

Cheryl Cunningham thanked the DOI Committee for its work and time spent.

Dr. Young thanked Mrs. Cunningham for all her hard work that she has done with the committee.

Mr. Thomas then informed the DWCC that it needed to vote on approval of the DOI Plan for 2018- 2019 school year. Stephanie Hammer made the motion to accept the 2017-2018 DOI Plan as presented. Steve Shinkle seconded the motion. The motion carried unanimously. The DOI Plan will be presented to the Board during the next meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 5:40 p.m.

Summer Cox, Secretary
DWCC Committee
